TEMPLE FALLS TO RUTGERS IN SEASON OPENER

Temple (0-1)	0	7	7	0	14
Rutgers (1-0)	12	14	14	21	61

PISCATAWAY, N.J. – The Temple Owls (0-1, 0-0) dropped their opening game of the season to the Rutgers Scarlet Knights (1-0, 0-0) by a score of 61-14. Four turnovers in the first half put the Owls in a 19-point hole going into the second half that they were unable to overcome.

Notes
WR Jadan Blue moved into 16th place all-time in Temple's history for receiving yards and is now at 1,496

How it happened
First Quarter
After forcing a three-and-out on Rutgers' opening drive, the Owls' first offensive possession started at their own one-yard line. Temple failed to get out of trouble as Rutgers forced a safety a few plays later. A 54-yard kickoff return on the next play set up a Rutgers field goal a few minutes later to put the Owls in a 5-0 hole. After a few stalled drives for both teams, the Scarlet Knights capitalized on an interception for their first touchdown of the day.

Second Quarter
Fumbles on consecutive possessions for the Owls set up back-to-back rushing touchdowns for Rutgers. On the next drive, the Owls mounted their first scoring drive of the day as WR Randle Jones hauled in a 38-yard catch down the sideline from QB D'Wan Mathis. A few plays later, RB Edward Saydee waltzed in for an 11-yard touchdown with just over nine minutes remaining in the half. A scoreless last nine minutes sent the Owls into the half trailing 26-7.

Third Quarter
On the opening drive of the third quarter, the Cherry & White marched straight down the field for a nine-play, 81-yard drive. After a few chunk gains by Saydee, Mathis hit WR Jose Barbon for 29 yards to move into the red zone before Mathis took it in himself for a three-yard scamper to cut the deficit to 26-14. An injury to Mathis shortly afterwards sidelined the quarterback for the rest of the afternoon. True freshman QB Justin Lynch took the majority of the snaps for the rest of the game for the Owls. Rutgers answered back a few minutes later, however, as a 40-yard passing touchdown put the Scarlet Knights back up by 19 points midway through the quarter. A pick-six later on in the quarter extended the Rutgers lead to 40-14.

Fourth Quarter
Twenty-one unanswered points in the fourth quarter gave the Scarlet Knights a 61-14 win.

OWLS SECURE ROAD WIN AT AKRON

Temple (1-1)	7	17	14	7	45
Akron (0-2)	14	3	0	7	24

AKRON, Ohio – The Temple Owls (1-1, 0-0) defeated the Akron Zips (0-2, 0-0) by a score of 45-24 to grab its first win of the season. After falling behind 14-0 in the first quarter, the Owls responded by outscoring the Zips 45-10 through the rest of the game, thanks to two defensive touchdowns in the second quarter.

How It Happened

First Quarter

The Zips got the ball first to start the game and took advantage of the opportunity, driving 77 yards in 12 plays to put Akron up 7-0. After a few empty drives for both sides, Akron struck again, this time in the form of a 17-yard passing touchdown from QB Kato Nelson. However, the Owls bounced back a few plays later with a 70-yard passing touchdown from QB Justin Lynch to WR Randle Jones to cut the deficit going into the second quarter.

Second Quarter

After a 39-yard field goal from Akron, a 40-yard return from De'Von Fox set up the Owls around midfield for its next drive. A few first downs later moved the Owls into field goal range, but the Owls could not convert the 40-yard attempt to trim the Zips' lead. On the ensuing drive, Temple defensive end Layton Jordan stripped Nelson, and LB William Kwenkeu recovered the ball and ran it back 38 yards for the touchdown. Just a few plays later on the next Zips' drive, defensive end Manny Walker intercepted a screen pass, and waltzed into the end zone for Temple's second defensive touchdown in 12 seconds to put the Owls up 21-17. A 26-yard field goal from Rory Bell on Temple's next drive extended the lead going into the half.

Third Quarter

Stalled drives for Temple and Akron on the opening drives of the second half set up the Owls at their own 29-yard line. A few plays later, a 19-yard run by RB Tayvon Ruley put the Owls inside the Zips' 27-yard line. On the next play, Lynch hit Jones down the middle for the graduate's second touchdown of the day. The Owls' defense stood tall once again on the next Akron drive, forcing a turnover on downs to get the ball back. Lynch drove the Owls down the field for an 11-play, 77-yard drive where the true freshman capped off the drive by calling his own number for a one-yard rushing touchdown to extend the Owls lead to 38-17.

Fourth Quarter

A scoreless first nine minutes of the fourth quarter ended when RB Ra'Von Bonner bulldozed in for a one-yard rushing touchdown to stretch the lead for Temple. Big runs from Bonner and Edward Saydee led the Owls down the field for the score. Akron responded a few minutes later with a touchdown of its own with just over two minutes remaining in the game to close the gap.

Notes

Jones: First career game with two receiving touchdowns.

Lynch: First time since the season finale of 2019 that an Owl has recorded a passing and rushing touchdown in the same game.

OWLS LOSE HOME OPENER TO BOSTON COLLEGE

BC (3-0)	14	7	0	7	28
Temple (1-2)	0	0	0	3	3

PHILADELPHIA – The Temple Owls (1-2, 0-0) suffered their second loss of the season, falling to Boston College (3-0, 0-0) by a score of 28-3. A slow start to the game found the Owls down 14-0 after the first quarter. From there, Temple was unable to mount enough offense to cut into the Eagles' lead.

How It Happened

First Quarter

The game began with a big return by Boston College's Travis Levy to set up the Eagles at the Temple 29-yard line. The first drive was capped off by a Dennis Grosel touchdown pass to Jaden Williams to put the Eagles up 7-0. After a few stalled drives, Temple's Keyshawn Paul intercepted a deep pass to halt the Boston College offense. A big sack by Manny Walker later on was not enough to stop Boston College, however, as the Eagles tacked on another touchdown to extend their lead.

Second Quarter

The second quarter was full of back-and-forth punts until Levy rushed for the Eagles' third touchdown of the game with just under a minute remaining.

Third Quarter

A few empty possessions for both sides opened the quarter, but Temple mounted the first long drive of the quarter spanning six minutes. However, a failed fourth-down attempt just outside the red zone halted the drive. On the ensuing possession, the defense stood tall to give the Owls the ball. Two 15-plus yard receptions from Jadan Blue and Amad Anderson Jr. moved the Owls into the red zone.

Fourth Quarter

After a few negative plays in the red zone, the Owls were forced to settle for a 32-yard field goal from Rory Bell for their only points of the contest. With just over four minutes to go in the game, a Boston College two-yard rushing touchdown put the game out of reach.

Notes

The 29-yard reception by tight end Darius Pittman is the longest of his career.

OWLS SCORE 41 STRAIGHT TO ROUT SEAHAWKS

Wagner (0-4)	7	0	0	0	7
Temple (2-2)	0	17	17	7	41

PHILADELPHIA – The Temple Owls (2-2, 0-0) defeated the Wagner Seahawks (0-4, 0-2) by a score of 41-7. The win marks the first one at home this season for the Owls. After falling behind 7-0 after Wagner's first drive, Temple responded nicely, rattling off 41 straight points to win in convincing fashion.

How It Happened
First Quarter
After failing to stop the Seahawks on multiple fourth-down attempts in the opening drive, a 50-yard rush by Rickey Spruill down to the one-yard line set up the opening touchdown for Wagner. Following an empty possession to start the game for the Owls, a strip-sack from linebacker Kobe Wilson thwarted the next Seahawks' drive. Empty possessions from that point ended the first quarter with Temple threatening in Wagner territory.

Second Quarter
Shortly after the start of the second quarter, the Owls got in the board after Kyle Dobbins pitched the ball to wide receiver Jose Barbon for a long gain. A few plays later after quarterback D'Wan Mathis ran for a fourth-down conversion, Dobbins punched it in from the one-yard line to put the Owls on the board. The Temple defense did its job once again on the next Seahawks drive, forcing a three-and-out. From there, multiple completions from Mathis to Barbon moved the ball down the field and into Wagner territory. A stalled drive, however, resulted in a 47-yard field goal from Rory Bell midway through the quarter. A Manny Walker interception off a screen pass on the ensuing possession gave the Cherry & White the ball back. A few plays later, thanks to a strong rushing attack, Dobbins was able to get into the endzone for his second touchdown of the day to extend the Owls' lead. Towards the end of the half, a muffed punt gave Wagner the ball back, but the Seahawks were not able to convert on the opportunity, missing the 48-yard field goal.

Third Quarter
The connection between Mathis and Barbon picked up right where it left off as the pair connected once again, this time for a 48-yard gain. Temple could not convert the touchdown, however, and were forced to settle for another field goal with just under 12 minutes remaining in the quarter. A quick defensive stand gave the Owls the ball back which the Owls took full advantage of. A 27-yard gain from Mathis to Amad Anderson Jr. moved Temple into Wagner territory. A few plays later, Dobbins ran into the endzone for his third touchdown of the game. On the next Temple drive, Mathis hit an open Kadas Reams deep down the middle for a 44-yard touchdown to extend the Owls' lead to 34-7.

Fourth Quarter
Empty drives for both sides started the final period before the Owls started to make strides again midway through the quarter thanks to first down receptions from Barbon and tight end Darius Pittman. A second touchdown by Kadas Reams capped off the drive for the Cherry & White to stretch the lead.

Notes
Barbon: first career 100-yard receiving game
Bell: career-long 47-yard field goal
Dobbins: first player to have three or more rushing touchdowns since Ryquell Armstead did it against Houston in 2018.
Mathis: first passing touchdown for Temple
Reams: first career touchdown
Wilson: first career sack

OWLS EARN FIRST AAC VICTORY ON HOMECOMING DAY

Memphis (3-2)	3	14	6	8	31
Temple (3-2)	0	17	7	10	34

PHILADELPHIA – Temple defeated the Memphis Tigers in its conference opener, 34-31. After falling behind 17-0 early in the second quarter, the Owls rallied back, scoring 17 unanswered points in the second quarter to tie the game heading into the break. The Owls fell behind briefly in the third quarter, but a second half touchdown from Tayvon Ruley gave the Owls the lead, and a late touchdown from WR Amad Anderson Jr. sealed the game for Temple.

How It Happened
First Quarter
After picking up a few first downs on its opening drive, Temple punter Adam Barry pinned the Tigers within their own 10-yard line with just over 10 minutes remaining in the quarter. From there, Memphis drove 84 yards on 17 plays before a defensive stand in the red zone, thanks to a pass deflection by CB Cameron Ruiz, forced the Tigers to settle for a field goal. On the next Temple drive, a 34-yard pitch-and-catch from QB D'Wan Mathis to Anderson moved the Owls into Tigers territory, but a turnover on downs a few plays later gave the ball back to the Tigers. A 43-yard reception by Memphis' Sean Dykes set up the Tigers in the red zone as the first quarter drew to a close.

Second Quarter
On the opening play of the second quarter, a six-yard rush extended the Tigers lead. A second turnover on downs for Temple gave Memphis the ball at the Owls' 35-yard line. On the next play, QB Seth Henigan hit WR Javon Ivory in the end zone to put the Tigers up 17-0. On the ensuing drive, the Owls marched down the field in 17 plays for 75 yards. A fourth-down conversion from RB Ra'Von Bonner kept the drive alive before Ruley moved the chains in the red zone. On fourth-and-one at the Memphis one-yard line, a one-handed catch from WR Jadan Blue put the Owls on the board. The next Memphis drive did not last for long, as CB Keyshawn Paul forced a fumble on the Tigers' second play of the drive. The Owls did not waste any time cutting the deficit with a 15-yard touchdown reception from WR Jose Barbon with just over three minutes remaining in the half. After Temple's defense forced a three-and-out, the Owls' offense capitalized on the opportunity, kicking a 35-yard field goal as time expired to tie the game.

Third Quarter
After Temple's defense forced a third consecutive empty possession to start the third quarter, a 39-yard rush from Mathis brought the Owls into field goal territory, but a missed field goal kept the game all squared up. Memphis got the first points on the board in the second half after a 69-yard drive resulted in a touchdown midway through the third quarter. On the following drive, the Cherry & White mounted a drive of their own, driving 75 yards and scoring a one-yard rushing touchdown on fourth-and-goal to take a 24-23 lead heading into the fourth quarter.

Fourth Quarter
On the following Memphis drive, the Tigers threatened in Temple's red zone once again, but a forced fumble by LB Yvandy Rigby at the one-yard line kept the Owls in front. After a quick first down, the Owls drive stalled out and Temple was forced to give the ball back to the Tigers. The Temple defense held firm once again, however, as Rigby sacked Memphis' quarterback to force a punt. Temple marched down the field once again thanks in large part to a 38-yard run by Edward Saydee and a 15-yard facemask penalty at the end of the play. A defensive stand by Memphis, however, meant that the Owls were forced to settle for a field goal once again, which Bell knocked through to extend Temple's lead, 27-23. The Tigers moved the ball into Temple territory once again on the next possession, but an incomplete pass on fourth-and-six from the Owls' 43-yard line gave the ball back to the Owls. From there, a 53-yard touchdown from Mathis to Anderson sealed the game for the Owls. A late Memphis touchdown and two-point conversion with 30 seconds remaining trimmed the deficit, but the Owls were able to hold on for the victory.

OWLS FALL TO HIGH RANKED CINCINNATI IN ANNUAL NATIONALLY TELEVISED BLACKOUT GAME

Temple (3-3)	0	3	0	0	3
Cincinnati (5-0)	10	7	28	7	52

CINCINNATI, Ohio – Temple (3-3, 1-1) dropped its first conference game of the season on Friday night to the #5 ranked Cincinnati Bearcats (5-0, 1-0), 52-3. The Owls fell behind early in the contest as the Bearcats raced out to a 17-0 lead and never looked back. Trailing by 14 points heading into the halftime, the Owls were not able to get back into the game in the second half as the Bearcats scored 35 unanswered to take control of the game.

How It Happened

First Quarter

The Owls moved the ball out to midfield on their opening possession of the game before a stalled drive gave the ball to the Bearcats. From there, Cincinnati drove the ball deep into Temple's territory on its first possession, but a sack from Temple BUBO Yvandy Rigby on third down forced the Bearcats to settle for a field goal. A few drives later, with just over three minutes remaining in the quarter, a muffed punt from Temple set up Cincinnati in the red zone. The Bearcats were able to capitalize on the mistake as two plays later, Cincinnati QB Desmond Ridder tossed a touchdown pass to give the Bearcats a 10-0 lead.

Second Quarter

After another empty drive for the Cherry & White, the Bearcats mounted a 65-yard drive, capped off by an eight-yard rushing touchdown to stretch the Cincinnati lead to 17 midway through the second quarter. On the following drive, quarterback D'Wan Mathis connected with WR Amad Anderson Jr. and RB Edward Saydee on consecutive plays to move the ball into Cincinnati territory. However, a fumble which was recovered by the Owls a few plays later knocked Temple back for a long field goal try. Kicker Rory Bell was able to answer the call, however, connecting on a 55-yard field goal to put the Owls on the board. On the ensuing drive, the Bearcats drove just outside Temple's red zone, but a defensive stand resulted in a long field goal attempt for Cincinnati which was missed to keep the score at 17-3 heading into the break.

Third Quarter

On the opening play of the third quarter, the Bearcats struck first in the second half, as Cincinnati RB Jerome Ford ran into the end zone for a 75-yard touchdown. After being forced to a three-and-out on the next drive, a 58-yard punt by Adam Barry pinned the Bearcats inside their own 10-yard line. The Owls' forced a three-and-out of their own to force a Bearcats' punt, but another muffed punt by Temple resulted in its second turnover of the game. A couple of big plays later and Cincinnati tacked on another touchdown to stretch the lead to 31-3. A few minutes later, Cincinnati scored touchdowns on back-to-back drives to take a 45-3 lead into the final period.

Fourth Quarter

A Cincinnati touchdown added to the Bearcats lead.

Notes

Bell: Career long 55-yard field goal, second longest field goal in school history.

OWLS STAMPEDED BY BULLS

Temple (3-4)	0	7	7	0	14
USF (2-5)	0	17	10	7	34

TAMPA – Temple (3-4, 1-2) dropped its second conference game of the season to USF (2-5, 1-2), 34-14. After falling behind by 14 points, the Owls battled back, scoring two touchdowns to cut the deficit to 17-14 early in the third quarter. However, Temple was unable to stop the Bulls' rushing attack as USF scored 17 unanswered points to finish the game.

How It Happened
First Quarter
After receiving the opening kickoff, the Bulls marched down the field into Temple territory before the Owls defense stood tall to force a field goal try. On the attempt, a high snap recovered by CB Keyshawn Paul was returned the other way setting up the Owls at the Bulls' five-yard line. Temple was unable to capitalize on the opportunity, however, as an interception a few plays later gave the ball back to USF midway through the first quarter.

Second Quarter
On the ensuing drive, the Bulls mounted a 19-play, 80-yard drive capped off by a rushing touchdown to strike first in the contest. On the Owls' second offensive possession of the game, QB D'Wan Mathis found TE Jordan Smith for a 21-yard gain to get the drive started. A few plays later, following a penalty which moved the Owls backwards, Mathis connected with WR Jadan Blue for a 19-yard gain on 3rd and 13 to move the ball into USF territory, but the drive stalled shortly afterwards. USF started the next drive from its own seven-yard line, driving the length of the field to score a touchdown to extend the lead, 14-0. The Cherry & White answered back on the next possession as Mathis hit a streaking Randle Jones down the right sideline for a 70-yard touchdown on the first play of the drive to cut the lead in half. A few minutes later, Bulls kicker Spencer Shrader knocked in a field goal just before halftime, putting the Owls in a 17-7 hole heading into the break.

Third Quarter
On the opening drive of the second half, the Owls moved the ball down the field thanks to consecutive catches by Jones. A few plays later, a 20-yard catch and a 16-yard rush by RB Edward Saydee brought Temple down to the one-yard line. On the next play, Saydee bulldozed his way into the end zone for the Owls' second touchdown of the day. A few minutes later, with just over eight minutes remaining in the quarter, USF's Shrader connected on a 52-yard field goal to give the Bulls a 20-14 lead. Four minutes later, the Bulls extended their lead, scoring a touchdown after a nine-play drive as after attacking the Owls through its ground game.

Fourth Quarter
The Bulls scored a touchdown to add to its lead with 11 minutes remaining in the contest.

KNIGHTS TAKE IT TO OWLS

UCF (5-3)	7	14	21	7	49
Temple (3-5)	0	0	0	7	7

PHILADELPHIA – Temple (3-5, 1-3) lost to UCF (5-3, 3-2), 49-7, Saturday afternoon. Trailing 14-0 midway through the second quarter, the Owls were not able to cut the deficit after fumbling in UCF's red zone. A few minutes later, another Temple fumble led to UCF's third touchdown of the game heading into halftime. From there, the Knights outscored the Owls 28-7 in the second half.

How It Happened

First Quarter

The Owls received the ball to start the game and moved the ball efficiently into UCF territory. QB D'Wan Mathis spread the ball around with catches by wide receivers Jose Barbon, Jadan Blue, and Randle Jones before a sack on fourth down gave the Knights their first drive of the game. After the two sides traded scoreless possessions, UCF struck first, converting on fourth down to bring the ball into the red zone. A few plays later, running back Isaiah Bowser scored from 11 yards out to give UCF a 7-0 lead.

Second Quarter

The Owls once again moved the ball into UCF territory but were unable to capitalize on the opportunity. Punter Adam Barry punted the ball back to the Knights, pinning them inside the 20-yard line. From there, UCF drove down the field in 10 plays capped off by a touchdown pass from QB Mikey Keene to TE Alec Holler. Temple answered back with an 11-play drive of its own, moving the ball into the red zone, but a fumble by the Owls on the UCF 12-yard line resulted in a missed scoring opportunity. On the following possession, midway through the drive, an interception by Jalen Ware appeared to give the ball back to the Owls, but a fumble on the return kept the Knights in possession. A few plays later, the Knights scored a touchdown to extend the lead to 21.

Third Quarter

On the opening drive of the third quarter, UCF marched down the field for its fourth touchdown of the game. Keene and Holler connected on a 33-yard pitch and catch for Holler's second receiving touchdown of the contest. A fumble on Temple's first play of the ensuing drive led to UCF's fifth touchdown. The Owls forced and recovered a fumble on UCF's next drive as the Knights were threatening in the red zone, but Temple was unable to mount a drive, being forced to punt shortly thereafter. A sixth touchdown for UCF with just over three minutes remaining in the quarter stretched the lead.

Fourth Quarter

The Knights scored a touchdown midway through the fourth quarter to extend the lead. With under a minute remaining in the game, QB Justin Lynch found Barbon down the left sideline for a 27-yard touchdown to get the Owls on the board.

Blue: moved into second place all-time in school history in receptions.
Ware: first interception in Temple career.
Corey Cuascut-Palmer, Muheem McCargo, Jimto Obidegwu, Kadas Reams, and Jacoby Sharpe all made their first career starts.

OWLS SUFFER FOURTH STRAIGHT LOSS

Temple (3-6)	0	0	0	3	3
ECU (5-4)	7	14	14	10	45

GREENVILLE, N.C. – Temple (3-6, 1-4) fell to the ECU Pirates (5-4, 3-2) in Greenville, 45-3. Two missed field goals in the first half kept the Owls off the scoreboard as the Pirates scored two quick touchdowns to take a 21-0 lead going into the break. From there, the Owls were not able to get back into the game as Temple was outscored 24-3 in the second half.

How It Happened

First Quarter

Empty possessions by both sides led to a relatively quiet start to the contest. With a few minutes remaining in the quarter, however, the Pirates marched down the field to break the deadlock. A 33-yard connection from QB Holton Ahlers to TE Ryan Jones gave ECU the first points of the game. On the following drive, Temple answered back with a long drive of its own that brought the Owls into a field goal range.

Second Quarter

After before stopped just outside the red zone, Temple was unable to convert on the field goal try. The Pirates took control of possession, but not for long, as an interception by safety Jalen Ware got the ball back for the Owls and the 27-yard return brought the Cherry & White back into ECU territory. The Owls were unable to capitalize on the opportunity, however, as another missed field goal resulted in an empty possession. The Pirates took full advantage of the missed field goal this time, driving 74 yards in seven plays capped off by another receiving touchdown from Jones. After a three-and-out for the Owls, a third touchdown pass for Ahlers gave the Pirates a 21-point advantage going into the break.

Third Quarter

Following halftime, a kickoff return out to around midfield set up the Pirates with good field position. On the very next play, a 57-yard rush by Keaton Mitchell extended the ECU lead. A three-and-out on the ensuing drive for the Owls gave the Pirates the ball right back. After receiving the ball around midfield, Mitchell ran into the endzone for his second touchdown of the game.

Fourth Quarter

A few minutes into the fourth quarter, an ECU rushing touchdown stretched the lead. Midway through the fourth quarter, an interception by Freddie Johnson led to a 46-yard field goal by Rory Bell. With just under two minutes remaining in the contest, ECU responded with a field goal of its own.

Notes

Johnson: first career interception.
Ware: interception in two consecutive games.

OWLS BATTLE COUGARS WHO CLINCH SPOT IN AAC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Houston (9-1)	7	3	14	13	37
Temple (3-7)	0	0	0	8	8

PHILADELPHIA – Temple (3-7, 1-5) dropped its seventh game of the season on Saturday afternoon, falling to the Houston Cougars (9-1, 7-0), 37-8. The Owls trailed 10-0 going into halftime, playing through wet conditions throughout much of the first three quarters. A Temple touchdown early in the fourth quarter cut the deficit to two scores which gave the Owls hope for a comeback, but two Houston touchdowns shortly after put the game out of reach.

How It Happened
First Quarter
With QB D'Wan Mathis unable to play due to injury, Justin Lynch got his first start since the home opener against Boston College. The Owls received the ball first in the contest but could not gain a first down on each of their first two offensive possessions. Houston capitalized on the opportunity the second time around after starting its drive in Temple territory, driving 47 yards on seven plays to take a 7-0 lead midway through the opening quarter. On the Cougars' next offensive possession, a sack by Temple's Darian Varner and a stop on fourth down a few plays later got the ball back for the Owls. The Cherry & White marched down the field and into field goal range thanks in large part to a 15-yard reception by WR Randle Jones as well as a 25-yard reception by RB Ra'Von Bonner.

Second Quarter
The Owls were unable to convert on the field goal attempt however, as a botched hold, possibly due to the wet conditions, led to the missed field goal. On the ensuing Houston drive, the Cougars drove 58 yards to set up a 39-yard field goal from Dalton Witherspoon to extend the lead to 10. A few drives later, the Cougars threatened in Temple territory once again, but the Cherry & White defense stood tall, forcing a field goal that missed wide left in the closing seconds of the first half.

Third Quarter
On the opening possession of the third quarter, an 18-yard rush by Houston's Alton McCaskill moved the ball into the Owls' side of the field. A few plays later, the Cougars converted a 3rd-and-12 in the red zone before scoring their second touchdown of the game to stretch the lead to 17-0. Following a short drive for Temple, McCaskill sprinted to the end zone for a 34-yard touchdown to add to Houston's advantage. A 21-yard run by Lynch sparked Temple's next drive in which the Owls ended up at the Houston 32-yard line until an interception on a trick play surrendered possession. Temple held the Cougars to a three-and-out to get the ball back going into the fourth quarter.

Fourth Quarter
From there, the Cherry & White marched down the field by way of a 23-yard catch from tight end Jordan Smith. Running back Edward Saydee capped the drive off with a one-yard touchdown plunge. A two-point conversion to Darius Pittman brought the Owls to within two scores. Houston answered right back however, as a 35-yard touchdown pass from Clayton Tune to Jaylen Erwin ended the Owls' comeback hopes. Another Houston touchdown with just over six minutes remaining put the Cougars up 37-8.

OWLS DROP SIXTH STRAIGHT I N FINAL ROAD GAME OF THE SEASON

Temple (3-8)	0	0	10	0	10
Tulsa (5-6)	10	17	7	10	44

TULSA, Okla. – Temple lost to the Tulsa Golden Hurricane in Oklahoma, 44-10. The Owls got in a hole early on in this one, falling behind by 27 points going into the second half. From there, Temple was unable to claw its way back into the game.

How It Happened
First Quarter
Temple won the toss and elected to receive. On the Owls' initial drive, after picking up a first down, the Tulsa defense forced an Adam Barry punt. Immediately following, Tulsa's offense was sparked by a pair of 25-yard completions by QB Davis Brin, and was capped off by a 21-yard touchdown to WR Juan-Carlos Santana to make it 7-0. Temple's offense was able to move down the field on their second drive until an interception by SAF TieNeal Martin at the Tulsa one-yard line ended the drive. The Golden Hurricane got right back to work with their aerial attack, moving the ball into Temple territory after a few passing plays. The Owls' defense held firm, however, holding Tulsa to a 44-yard field goal by K Zach Long to make the score 10-0. The ensuing Temple drive led to a punt.

Second Quarter
Early into the second quarter, after converting twice on fourth down to keep their drive alive, an eight-yard touchdown pass from Brin extended the lead. A punt on Temple's next drive led to a Tulsa field goal to make it 20-0. A few drives later, Temple went for it on fourth down, but failed to convert, giving the ball back to the Golden Hurricane in great field position. From there, Tulsa capitalized on the opportunity, scoring its third touchdown of the night to take a 27-point advantage into the break.

Third Quarter
The Owls attempted an onside kick to begin the half, but failed to recover, however, on the first play of Tulsa's drive, SAF DaeSean Winston forced a fumble to get the ball right back. Temple picked up four first downs, and K Rory Bell converted a 33-yard field goal to make it 27-3. Tulsa answered back on its next drive, scoring a touchdown to make it 34-3. The Owls found the end zone on their next drive, driving 65 yards in six plays to cut the deficit. A Justin Lynch touchdown pass to Amad Anderson Jr. capped off the scoring drive.

Fourth Quarter
The Golden Hurricane continued to find success in the fourth quarter, scoring on back-to-back drives to start the period.

Notes
DaeSean Winston: Made his return from injury marking his first game since the season opener at Rutgers
De'Von Fox: First career start.

OWLS CLOSE OUT 2021 SEASON WITH SEVENTH STRAIGHT LOSS

Navy (2-8)	7	10	7	14	38
Temple (3-8)	0	7	7	0	14

PHILADELPHIA – Temple lost to the Navy Midshipmen in Philadelphia, 34-14. The Navy rushing attack was too much for the Owls to overcome, as the Midshipmen put up 219 yards on the ground.

How It Happened
First Quarter
Temple won the toss and chose to kickoff. Navy started with the ball in great field position after a free kick out of bounds, but Temple's defense forced a quick three-and-out. The teams traded punts on each of their first two possessions. Navy began its next drive in Temple territory thanks to a great punt return by SB Chance Warren. The Midshipmen were able to punch it in to the endzone after an 11-yard rush by SB Carlinos Acie to make it 7-0.

Second Quarter
On Navy's opening drive of the second quarter, QB Xavier Arline found Warren for a 15-yard touchdown to make it 14-0. After an Adam Barry punt pinned Navy inside the 20, DE Layton Jordan forced a fumble, and SAF Alex Odom recovered it at the Navy 1 yard line. On the ensuing Temple play, senior RB Ra'Von Bonner ran it in to make it 14-7. The teams exchanged punts until Temple muffed a punt inside its own 10-yard line that was recovered by Navy. The short field for Navy resulted in a 32-yard field goal by Bijan Nichols to make it 17-7.

Third Quarter
Temple began the second half with the ball. On the opening drive for Temple, Barry punted 40 yards to the Navy side of the field. A long 11-play drive for Navy was capped off by a touchdown run by FB Isaac Ruoss to make it 24-7. Temple responded with a long drive of its own that lasted 12:05, the Owls' longest drive of the season, and resulted in a rushing touchdown by senior RB Tayvon Ruley to make it 24-14.

Fourth Quarter
On the following Navy drive, Ruoss scored his second touchdown of the game to make it 31-14. On the next Temple drive, the Owls fumbled the ball, and it was recovered by Navy. The Midshipmen scored again to make it 38-14. Temple fumbled again, and Navy recovered to end the game.

Notes
15 Owls participated in the Senior Day Ceremony
Both senior running backs (Bonner and Ruley) scored touchdowns on Senior Day

All-time Record (1,138 games in 123 seasons): 481-605-52 (.446)

The Temple University football program will play its 121st season in 2019. For more than 35 years, the Owls have been the only major college football team in the Philadelphia region. That was not the case at the turn of the century.

The Early Years

Football at Temple first planted its roots in 1894, a decade after Russell Conwell founded the night school on North Broad Street. Nearly every college in and around Philadelphia had some sort of football squad at that time, though it may be a stretch to call them organized. The serious football powers of the east included Pennsylvania, Princeton, Harvard and Yale.

Temple's 11-man squad was technically a part of the school's Physical Education Department. The 1894 team was organized by physical education instructor Charles M. Williams, who also coached the basketball team. The Owls won their first game that fall against Philadelphia Dental College, 14-6.
There is almost no record of the first two decades of Temple football. The games were rarely reported in the newspapers, and the opposition usually consisted of small schools such as Pratt Institute or Pennsylvania Military College (now Widener University). After the turn of the century, the Owls began playing regularly against city schools La Salle and Saint Joseph's.

The school mascot had already been established though, along with the school colors—Cherry and White. For many years, the football team had no official home field. Eventually it settled into Vernon Park, a spacious green located on the city limits beyond Germantown.

The most notable person associated with the Temple football program prior to World War I was Elwood Geiges, who was supposed to coach the varsity team in 1917. But the Owls forfeited every regular game on the schedule that season because of the war. Late that fall, the varsity squad matched up with the freshman squad in a game to benefit the war effort. The contest finished in a 6-6 tie.

Geiges began his career as a college football official the following season. He officiated games for 27 years, advancing to the head of the profession. Geiges is credited with inventing the signals for holding, offsides, illegal shift and timeout. He was elected to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1984.

The Temple football program was administered by the Physical Education Department until well into the 20th century. For many years, the department was headed by Dr. Charles Prohaska, who was largely responsible for the expansion of the intercollegiate athletic program following World War I.

The Owls did not field a varsity football team between 1918 and 1921 due to the war. In the years that followed, Temple grew to have the second largest enrollment in the Philadelphia area. University President Charles F. Beury made a strong commitment at that time to greater success in intercollegiate athletics.

The Modern Era

What might be called the modern era of Temple football began in 1925 with the hiring of Henry J. Miller as head coach. "Heinie" Miller had been a star player at Penn, earning All-America honors in 1917. His much-hailed arrival promised great success against a much tougher level of competition.

Miller's Owls did well in 1925 and 1926, compiling a record of 10-5-2, the best two-year stretch in the school's short history. Things were about to get much better. Several outstanding players joined the roster in 1927, including future Temple Hall of Famers Tucker "Swede" Hanson, Grover Wearshing and Jack Bonner.

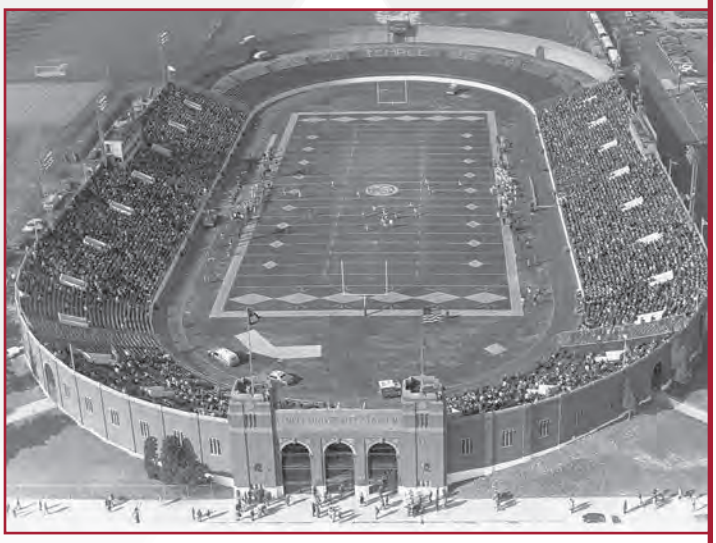
The Owls opened the season with a home game against Blue Ridge College, a small school located in New Windsor, Md. The mismatch was apparent from the opening kickoff. Temple held a 27-0 lead at the end of the first quarter, and then scored eight touchdowns in the second quarter to establish a 78-0 lead at the half. Unable to move the ball on offense, Blue Ridge actually began punting on first down. The coaches agreed at halftime to shorten the third quarter to eight minutes and later shortened the fourth quarter to six minutes. By the end of the game, three Temple players had switched jerseys to fill in for Blue Ridge. The Owls won by a final score of 110-0. Hanson scored five touchdowns and Wearshing scored three.

Several other one-sided results from the 1927 campaign, against Juniata (58-0), Gallaudet (62-0) and Washington College (75-0), indicated that the Owls were ready for a new level of competition. That competition came from Dartmouth, Brown and Bucknell.

Temple finished 7-1 that season, losing only to Dartmouth, while posting notable victories against Brown (7-0) and Bucknell (19-13). The Bucknell game marked the beginning of a long rivalry with the school located in Lewisburg, Pa. The Owls and the Bison played every year for the next 44 years, often in the last game of the season. Some years later, "The Old Shoe" was dedicated as a prize for the winner of the Temple-Bucknell contest. The bronze statue of a football shoe was awarded to the winning school, which held it until the following year's game.

The 1927 season finale against Bucknell was played at Franklin Field, marking Temple's first appearance on the home field of the Pennsylvania Quakers. The Owls would not need to borrow the facility the following season.

In December of 1927, President Beury announced that the University had received a gift of $100,000 from Philadelphia land developer Charles G. Erny for the construction of a football stadium at Vernon Park. The stadium was to seat between 20,000 and 25,000 and was to be completed in time for the 1928 football season.



Temple Stadium was first referred to as Beury Stadium, and for many years was known as Owl Stadium. The structure was designed by Philadelphia architect Clarence E. Wunder and was built by Erny's development firm. The total cost of construction was $350,000, with a seating capacity of 34,200, including mobile field seats.

The Owls made their debut in the new stadium on Sept. 29, 1928, against St. Thomas College of Scranton. Team captain Howard "Barney" Gugel made it a successful debut, scoring on a 66-yard fumble recovery and a 38-yard interception return for a 12-0 Temple victory witnessed by 10,000 fans.

The stadium's official dedication game came two weeks later against Eastern power Western Maryland. The Owls won that game, 7-0, thanks to a touchdown pass from Wearshing to Hanson. The contest drew 25,000 fans, including several dignitaries from the city of Philadelphia.

The 1928 campaign was another great success, as the Owls finished 7-1-2, losing only to Schuylkill College and posting ties against Bucknell and Villanova. Temple was dominant in the new stadium, winning its first six games by shutout. The only team to score against the Owls was Washington College, which managed a single touchdown in a 73-7 rout. Wearshing and Hanson scored three times apiece in that contest.

The battle against Villanova—a scoreless tie—also marked the beginning of a long rivalry (though the teams had played one another in 1908). The Owls and the Wildcats were both developing strong national reputations, and this was the big game on their schedules for the next 15 years.

Miller continued to field successful teams through the Depression Era, tutoring a new set of future Hall of Famers in Hank Reese, Tony Dougal and Leon Whittock. All three played key roles in 1931, another milestone year for the program.

The Owls finished with a record of 8-1-1 that season, setting a school record for wins that stood for 42 years. Along the way, Temple recorded a 12-0 victory over developing regional power Penn State. It was considered the school's most notable victory to date. The Owls also scored their first-ever victory over Villanova by the score of 13-7. Reese had an 80-yard interception return for a touchdown and Cornelius Bonner scored on a five-yard run to secure the victory. The Wildcats were coached by Harry Stuhldreher, who had gained fame as one of Notre Dame's "Four Horsemen."

Temple closed the 1931 campaign with its first extended road trip, traveling by train across the Midwest and the Plains to face Denver College and the University of Missouri. The Owls built their national reputation with an 18-0 victory over Denver and a 38-6 triumph over Missouri.

The Owls were administered by Earl Yeomans, Graduate Manager of Athletics, who had replaced James R. Clovis in that position in the mid-1920s. Yeomans would oversee the athletic programs at Temple until 1952. College football continued to grow by leaps and bounds despite the Depression.

The 1930s saw the establishment of several bowl games and the first Associated Press national poll to determine the best teams in the country. The Temple football program continued to grow as well, making a huge national splash with the hiring of college coaching legend Glenn S. Warner.

The Pop Warner Years

"Pop" Warner was one of football's great innovators. He pioneered the use of several offensive formations (the single wing, the double wing, the unbalanced line) while building powerful programs at Pittsburgh and Stanford. After carrying his legend from the East Coast to the West Coast, Warner was lured away from Stanford by Temple in December 1932.

"The Old Fox"—another one of Warner's many nicknames—had a successful 1933 debut at Owl Stadium against South Carolina, a dangerous opponent from the south. Edward Zukas had an 80-yard punt return for a touchdown in the first quarter to send the Owls on their way to a 26-6 triumph.

Another round of Hall of Famers took their place under Warner's guidance, most notably Pete Stevens, Dave Smukler, Stan Grayson and Chet Messervey. Stevens joined the team in 1933 and was named team captain in 1934. Smukler was a game-breaking running back who made an immediate impact on the team in 1934.

The Owls won their first two games that season against Virginia Tech (34-0) and Texas A&M (40-6). After a 6-6 tie against Indiana, Warner's squad won five straight against tough competition that included West Virginia, Holy Cross and Carnegie Tech. Temple finished the run with a 22-0 rout of Villanova, and then played Bucknell to a scoreless tie in the regular season finale.

The 1934 backfield quartet of Smukler, quarterback Glenn Frey and running backs Danny Testa and Wilfred H. Longsderff was one of the best in the nation. Their exploits (and the team's 7-0-2 record) drew the attention of the Mid-Winter Sports Association of New Orleans, which was busy planning the first Sugar Bowl. Warner's Owls were invited to play unbeaten Tulane in that contest on Jan. 1, 1935.

Smukler was a one-man show in the first half of the Sugar Bowl, tossing a touchdown pass to Danny Testa and running the ball in for another score. He also converted both extra points to give the Owls a 14-0 lead. Tulane responded to the second touchdown with a huge play from its star, Claude "Monk" Simons, who took a lateral on the ensuing kickoff and raced 85 yards for a touchdown. The Green Wave knotted the score at 14-14 in the third quarter and it seemed for a while that the game would end in a tie. With less than three minutes remaining, though, Tulane scored on a pass that had been deflected by a Temple defender. The Owls blocked the extra point and mounted one last offensive drive, but they could not put the ball in the end zone. They lost, 20-14.

Warner guided the Temple program for the next four years against the nation's toughest competition. The Owls beat tough southern schools Texas A&M and Vanderbilt in 1935 and began a series of games against Michigan State. The 1938 squad played three teams that finished the season in the nation's Top 10 (Pittsburgh, Holy Cross and eventual national champion, Texas Christian).

Temple was a heavy underdog in what would turn out to be Warner's finale, a contest at Florida on Dec. 3, 1938. Florida was coached by Josh Cody, who was just a couple years away from beginning a 15-year career at Temple. Playing in 80-degree heat, the Owls upset the Gators, 20-12, thanks in large part to a 102-yard kickoff return by Jimmy Powers. After missing the entire 1939 season due to injury, Powers returned the opening kickoff against Michigan State 105 yards for a touchdown in 1940. The returns remain the two longest plays in Temple football history.

The Post-Warner Years

Warner's top assistant, Fred H. Swan, took over as head coach in 1939. His tenure may have been doomed from the start. The Owls lost his debut game against Georgetown, 3-2, on a field goal with 25 seconds to go. The field goal had been preceded by a controversial pass interference penalty against the Owls.

The following season, Temple hired Ray Morrison as head coach. Morrison had gained fame as an All-American player at Vanderbilt and head coach at Southern Methodist University. One of Morrison's top assistants was Josh Cody. The new coach promised a wide-open offensive attack that he had developed in the south.

The high-scoring offense was on display in the first game of the 1940 season, a 64-7 victory over Muhlenberg. The Owls jumped to a 45-0 halftime lead in the contest and never looked back. Running back "Handy" Andy Tomasic had a 73-yard touchdown run. Tomasic, nicknamed "The Hokendauqua Hurricane" for his hometown near Allentown, Pa., was one of several Temple Hall of Famers that maintained the program's level of national success in the 1940s.

Tackles Chuck Drulis and Bucko Kilroy were All-East selections and Kilroy was Temple's first Honorable Mention All-American. Running back Phil Slosburg was an All-East pick and was chosen to play in the Blue-Gray All-Star Game. Other stars for the Cherry and White included Mike Jarmoluk, Joe Nejman and John Rogers.

The Owls fielded particularly strong teams in 1941 and 1945. The team got off to a 6-1 start in 1941, beating rivals Penn State, Bucknell and Villanova. That marks the only time in school history that all three foes were beaten in the same season. Hopes for a bowl bid were dashed though, with a 46-0 loss at Michigan State in the next-to-last game of the season. The following week, the Owls were heavy underdogs on a trip to Eastern power Holy Cross. They responded with a 31-13 upset victory to finish the season at 7-2.

The 1945 campaign held similar promise as Temple defeated Eastern powers Syracuse (7-6) and Pittsburgh (6-0) on the way to a 6-0 start. The Owls were among the favorites to receive an Orange Bowl bid until suffering a 27-0 loss at Penn State. History repeated itself with a visit to heavily favored Holy Cross the following week. Holy Cross was undefeated at the time and had become the Orange Bowl favorite. Temple pulled off one of the greatest upsets in school history, winning 14-6 thanks to touchdown runs by quarterback Jack Burns and running back Gene Zawolski. Holy Cross received the Orange Bowl bid anyway, though the Owls received strong consideration for the Cotton Bowl—partially thanks to Morrison's ties with SMU. Temple's 7-1 squad of 1945 ranks as one of its best ever.

Morrison coached the Owls through 1948, and was followed by Albert P. Kawal. The new coach's first team featured a hard-nosed running back who nearly became the first 1,000-yard rusher in school history. Temple Hall of Famer, Bill Bernardo, gained 994 yards on the ground in 1949, a school record that stood until 1973. The roster also included Hall of Famer Gavin White, who would later enjoy a successful coaching career and would serve as Temple's director of athletics in the 1980s.

Cody replaced Yeomans as Temple's athletic director in 1952, as the University was entering the first few years of an "administrative de-emphasis" of intercollegiate athletics. By the mid-1950s, the Owls were no longer playing a national schedule, replacing the likes of Michigan State and West Virginia with Lafayette and Gettysburg. Bucknell remained a yearly foe, though Villanova had been dropped from the schedule in 1944.

Kawal coached the Owls through 1954, and then Cody took over for the 1955 campaign. The Owls went 0-8 that season, their first winless mark since 1923, and Cody hired 1934 team captain Pete Stevens to coach the team in 1956. Stevens remains the only former Temple player to have coached the team in the modern era.

Temple went 3-5 in 1956 and opened the 1957 season with two losses. The Owls then beat Lafayette, 13-12, at Temple Stadium. They would not win another game for nearly three years. The Owls lost their final four games of the 1957 campaign and finished 0-8 in 1958 and 0-9 in 1959. The 21-game losing streak is the longest in school history.

Ernie Casale took over as Temple's athletic director in 1959. Years later, he recalled a 12-8 loss that season against Drexel that attracted just 200 fans on a rainy Halloween night in Philadelphia. The Owls had just 24 players in uniform for their 1959 season finale at Gettysburg.

The following year brought a new head coach, George Makris, to North Broad Street. Makris had established a fine coaching reputation at Bolling Air Force Base in Washington, D.C. The 21-game losing streak came to an end in the 1960 season opener against Kings Point.

The Owls trailed 13-0 in the first half of the contest, but then started their comeback, eventually taking an 18-13 lead on Charlie Lotson's 86-yard interception return for a touchdown. Lotson later recovered a fumble that set up the game-clinching touchdown. Running back Ernie Wayland scored two touchdowns as the Cherry and White posted a 26-13 victory. Many of the 10,000 fans in attendance stormed the field and tore down the goalposts in celebration.

Middle Atlantic Conference

Temple continued to re-establish itself in the 1960s, playing in the University Division of the Middle Atlantic States Conference. The other losing streak that had to be brought to an end was a long skid against conference rival Bucknell. While the Owls dominated the series from 1938 to 1949, compiling a record of 9-1-2 during that stretch, they had not beaten the Bison since 1953. The losing streak had reached eight by 1962.

The game was up for grabs that year. Bucknell took a 7-0 lead, but the Owls responded with a one-yard touchdown run by running back Bill Cosby (who would eventually gain greater fame). The Owls then jumped ahead, 14-7, on a 38-yard interception return for a touchdown by Joe Morelli. Late in the contest, Bucknell went ahead again, 15-14, scoring a TD and converting a two-point play. The Owls came back with a drive to the Bucknell one-yard line, but fumbled the ball away. Temple got one last chance on offense and advanced the ball deep into Bucknell territory. With 15 seconds left, the Owls lined up for a game-winning field goal attempt. It missed, and the Bison kept possession of "The Old Shoe."

Things got significantly better for the Cherry and White though, as the team posted a 5-3-1 mark in 1963, the school's first winning record since 1951. The Owls finished second in the league standings in 1964 and challenged for the Middle Atlantic title in 1965 and 1966. The 1966 campaign also brought "The Old Shoe" back to North Broad Street.

That season's battle with Bucknell was a blowout from the beginning. Temple held a 20-0 lead at the end of the first quarter, and it was 41-7 by halftime. Late in the first half, sophomore quarterback John Waller was substituted in place of starter Tom DeFelice. Waller connected with wide receiver Jim Callahan for a couple of touchdowns, and then a couple more. Entering the fourth quarter, the Owls held a 75-14 lead and Waller had thrown five touchdowns, four of them to Callahan. One more Waller-to-Callahan TD pass set the school's single-game record for touchdown passes and receptions. The Owls won, 82-28, posting the second-highest point total in school history.

"The Old Shoe" stayed in Philadelphia the next season as the Owls beat Bucknell and every other Middle Atlantic Conference foe to win the 1967 league title. Another school record was broken against the Bison, this time as running back Mike Busch carried the ball a record 38 times for a record 176 yards in a 13-8 victory that clinched a tie for the league title. DeFelice guided the squad to a 45-27 victory over Gettysburg the following week to clinch the crown outright. Temple received strong consideration for the Tangerine Bowl that year but was not selected.

Records continued to fall in 1968, especially passing records, as Waller-to-Callahan became one of the most dangerous pass-and-catch duos in the country. Waller set school marks with 35 completions, 62 attempts and 440 yards passing in a 50-40 loss to Buffalo. He finished the year as the first 2,000-yard passer in Temple history and set just about every other single-season and career passing record for the Owls. Callahan's total of 14 TD receptions in 1968 went unmatched until 2008 [by Bruce Francis]. Amazingly, Callahan's first 10 receptions were all for TDs.

The Owls left the Middle Atlantic Conference after the 1969 season so they could return to playing a full Division I-A schedule. Makris was replaced by Wayne Hardin, a well-known coach who had six successful seasons at Navy. Hardin's Midshipmen had beaten Army in five of their six meetings. His tenure on North Broad Street did not have such an auspicious beginning.

The Hardin Years

The opponent was Akron in the 1970 season opener. The Zips scored on their first three possessions and never looked back in a 21-0 victory over the Owls. Hardin's team bounced back the following week and beat Bucknell, 10-3, in the last meeting between the two schools. Temple now had possession of "The Old Shoe" trophy for good. The winning ways continued through the 1970 campaign, though the Owls lost their season finale against Villanova, 31-26. It was the first meeting between the two teams since 1943, and it was closely contested from start to finish. Temple-Villanova was the closing game of the regular season every year from 1970 to 1980.

The Owls compiled a record of 18-9-1 during Hardin's first three years as head coach and rolled on from there. Temple beat Villanova, 12-10, in the 1972 season finale. Temple Hall of Fame kicker Nick Mike-Mayer booted two field goals and the game-clinching touchdown was set up on a fumble recovery by Bob Bernardo, the son of Temple Hall of Famer Bill Bernardo. Wide receiver Clint Graves set a school record in 1972 with 63 receptions, and he set the single-game mark with 15 catches against Rhode Island.

Hardin's first few teams featured several other stars, including quarterback Doug Shobert, an Honorable Mention All-American in 1971; tight end Randy Grossman, a Third Team All-American in 1972; and offensive guard Bill Singletary, a First Team All-American in 1972. Singletary is the only football player in Temple history to have his number (64) retired.

The Owls re-established themselves as one of the dominant programs in the East in 1973, finishing the season at 9-1 to set a school record for wins. The team won its final eight games of the season, including a 34-0 shutout of Villanova in which the defense forced 10 turnovers. Hardin's veer offense was almost impossible to stop, as the team surpassed the 30-point mark in eight of 10 games. The backfield tandem of Tom Sloan and Henry Hynoski keyed a powerful rushing attack, and the passing game was left in the capable hands of Steve Joachim. Sloan became the first 1,000-yard rusher in school history, finishing the year with 1,036 yards. Hynoski surpassed the 1,000-yard mark in 1974.

The Temple offense was just as tough to stop that season, and the defense was downright stingy. The Owls won their first six games of 1974, running their win streak to 14 games. It was the longest streak in the nation and it still stands as the longest in school history. In a nine-game stretch that spanned two seasons, Temple outscored its opponents, 361-58. The 14th victim of Hardin's Owls was Delaware, which battled hard before losing a 21-17 contest at Veterans Stadium. That marked Temple's first game at the South Philadelphia venue. The win streak was snapped the following week by Cincinnati, 22-20. The Owls finished the season with a record of 8-2, winning their finale against Villanova, 17-7, in another game played at The Vet.

The awards came piling in after the season. Joachim received numerous All-American honors, running back Henry Hynoski and offensive guard Pat Staub were All-East choices, and defensive tackle Joe Klecko was an Honorable Mention All-American. The accolades culminated in Joachim being selected the Maxwell Award winner as National Player of the Year.

The 1975 season opener provided another milestone for the Owls, as the team faced Penn State for the first time since 1952. Running back Bob Harris shocked the Nittany Lions by breaking through the middle for a 76-yard touchdown on the first play from scrimmage. The up-and-back contest tilted toward the Owls in the fourth quarter when Anthony Anderson ran for a touchdown that gave Temple a 23-18 lead. But Penn State would score the last touchdown after a long punt return and win the game, 26-25.

The teams played another one-point game the following year at Veterans Stadium. Beginning in 1976, The Vet became the new home of the Temple football team. Early in the season, the stadium hosted the first meeting between Temple and Grambling, which was coached by the legendary Eddie Robinson. The Owls won the contest, 31-30. That score was reversed when Penn State returned to town in October. Temple scored on the last play of the game to make the score 31-30, and Hardin opted for a two-point conversion attempt to beat the Nittany Lions. The conversion attempt failed.

Klecko ranked as the top tackler in school history following the 1976 season. Another group of stars then arrived on campus that would eventually produce the most successful season in school history. Temple Hall of Famers Anthony Anderson and Steve Watson built that success in 1977 and 1978. The Owls wrapped up both years with a trip to Japan to play in the Mirage Bowl. Tokyo's Korakeun Stadium hosted Temple-Grambling in 1977 and Temple-Boston College in 1978. Running back Zachary Dixon set a single-season school rushing record in the BC game. He finished the year with 1,153 yards on the ground, and the Owls finished with a record of 7-3-1.

The 1979 Season

The 1979 campaign opened with three straight victories before Hardin's squad lost to Pittsburgh, 10-9. The Owls bounced back to rout Rutgers and Syracuse on the way to five straight wins. The 8-1 start had the Owls thinking about a postseason bowl bid in November. A loss to Penn State was followed by a 42-10 rout of Villanova, giving the team a record of 9-2 and securing a berth in the Garden State Bowl. Temple's offense was led by quarterback Brian Broomell, and his top receiving target was Gerald "Sweet Feet" Lucear, who set several records that year. The defense featured record-setting linebacker Steve Conjar, who had 163 tackles that season and surpassed that mark with 174 stops in 1980.

The Garden State Bowl opponent was California and the matchup painted Temple as the defender of Eastern football. The Owls jumped on the Golden Bears for three touchdowns in the first quarter, with running back Kevin Duckett scoring a pair of touchdowns. California chipped away at the 21-0 lead in the second quarter, scoring a pair of touchdowns to make it 21-14 at the half. A field goal early in the fourth quarter cut the lead to 21-17. Broomell then led the Owls on a 14-play, 78-yard drive that culminated with a five-yard TD pass to Lucear. Significant credit for Temple's offensive success went to running back Mark Bright, who totaled 112 yards rushing on 19 carries. The Owls won the game, 28-17, and Bright was voted the game's Most Valuable Player. Temple's 10-2 finish to the 1979 season marks the highest single-season win total in school history.

Hardin coached the Owls through the 1982 season, compiling 80 wins in his 13 seasons on North Broad Street. He had the most wins and the longest tenure of any Temple football coach. Bruce Arians took over as head coach in 1983. Arians had been tutored by Alabama coaching legend Paul "Bear" Bryant.

The 1980s and Bruce Arians

The Owls produced some notable wins and notable players in the 1980s. They beat Pittsburgh three times in a four-year span, including one year (1987) in which the Panthers were invited to a bowl game. They also scored victories against bowl-bound squads West Virginia (1984) and Virginia Tech (1986).

Arians also coached Paul Palmer, the most prolific running back in school history. Palmer broke onto the national scene with a 206-yard rushing effort against Penn State in his junior year and continued to break records throughout the season. He holds virtually every Temple rushing record, including those for career rushing yards (4,895), 100-yard rushing games (21) and rushing touchdowns (39).

Palmer couldn't have set all those records without a solid group of teammates. Temple players who earned All-American mention during the 1980s included fellow running back Todd McNair, wide receiver Willie Marshall, tight end Mike Hinnant, defensive back Todd Bowles, linebacker Loranzo Square and offensive linemen Kevin Jones and John Rienstra, who garnered First Team All-America honors in 1985.

The Big East

Jerry Berndt followed Arians as head coach, taking over in 1989. The Owls struggled to a 1-10 finish that season, but then recorded the biggest turnaround in college football and went 7-4 in 1990. Berndt's squad received consideration for the Independence Bowl while putting together the school's best record since the Garden State Bowl season. The following year, Temple helped found the Big East Football Conference, putting the Owls in league competition for the second time in school history.

Ron Dickerson followed Berndt as head coach in 1993. At the time he was hired, Dickerson was the only African-American head football coach of a Division I-A school. Dickerson coached two of the leading tacklers-linebackers Lance Johnstone and Alshermond Singleton, along with the most prolific passer in school history. Henry Burris set more than a dozen records between 1993 and 1996, including a single-game-best 445 yards passing against Pittsburgh in 1996, and he holds nearly every single-season and career passing mark.

On December 23, 1997, Temple University named Bobby Wallace its 23rd head football coach. The Mississippi native arrived on North Broad Street as the winningest coach in NCAA Division II playoff history after capturing three consecutive national titles at the University of North Alabama from 1993-95. In his first season, Wallace assembled a staff collectively holding 18 national championship rings and persevered through an injury-plagued season with 25 first-year players in the lineup en route to a 2-9 finish.

One of those victories occurred on October 17, 1998, and is arguably one of the greatest upsets in college football history. Before a homecoming crowd the 0-6 Owls traveled to No. 10/14 Virginia Tech to take on the Hokies' top ranked defense. Substituting for 12 defensive players who exited the game due to injury and with 20 first-year players on the field, Temple overcame a 17-0 deficit en route to a 28-24 win. The victory marked the Owls' first-ever Big East road win and first triumph over a ranked opponent in 11 years. Two games later the Owls proved the win was not an aberration. Trailing 20-0 at Pittsburgh, Temple ground out a 34-33 victory to ensure the program's largest comeback win in the modern era.

With a new, pass-oriented offense, the 1999 team posted a 2-9 record and finished tied for sixth in the Big East. The Owls struggled early with a schedule that allowed only two home dates in the first seven games and ranked 13th in difficulty. A come-from-behind, 17-14, homecoming win against then undefeated Boston College and a 56-28 offensive explosion over Rutgers were the highlights. Devin Scott completed 36 of 45 passes versus Rutgers to set both school and Big East records for completions in a game. Defensively, true freshman Dan Klecko earned All-America honors from various publications while linebackers Taylor Suman and LeVar Talley ranked second and fifth, respectively, in the conference in tackles.

The 2000 season began with much anticipation. With its new state-of-the-art practice facility under construction, Temple began the campaign with a 3-1 mark, its best start in 10 years. For the first time in a long time, the Owls had something to play for in November. Unfortunately, Temple lost many tight contests and could muster only one conference victory. Although the goal of a bowl game was not reached, the Owls finished with a 4-7 mark, the program's best since 1990. Sophomore running back Tanardo Sharps became the first Owl since 1987 to rush for over 1,000 yards, accumulating 1,038.

In 2001, Temple battled through a tough schedule en route to its second straight 4-7 record and a 2-5 Big East mark to finish in sixth place. All seven of the Owls' losses were to teams that ended their respective seasons bowl eligible, with a combined .750 (63-21) winning percentage. The strength of the 2001 squad was on defense, where Temple limited opponents to 312.64 yards per game to finish 19th nationally in total defense. The Owls concluded the season with two consecutive wins, including a 17-14 win in Morgantown, W.V., to break a 10-game drought against the Mountaineers. Juniors Dan Klecko and Sean Dillard earned first and second team All-Big East honors, respectively. Klecko was a unanimous choice, becoming Temple's first unanimous All-Big East honoree since the school joined the league as a charter member in 1991.

The 2002 Temple football team was composed entirely of players recruited during Wallace's tenure at Temple University. The Owls concluded the campaign with a 4-8 record, including a 2-5 mark in Big East play to finish tied for sixth place. Seven of Temple's eight losses were against opponents that concluded their respective seasons by playing in bowl games.

Once again, the defense paved the way, leading the Big East and placing 15th nationally in run defense, allowing just 108.3 yards on the ground per game. Temple also made its mark in total defense, placing 18th among all Division I programs by allowing just 315.67 yards per contest. Defensive tackle Dan Klecko was a major cog in TU's defensive machine and capped his senior campaign by being named the Big East Conference Defensive Player of the Year and an AP Second Team All-American.

Tanardo Sharps gained 1,267 yards on the ground to conclude his career ranked second to Paul Palmer in virtually every Temple rushing category while Sean Dillard exited Owl Country as the team's all-time reception leader.

Despite one victory, there were many positives to the 2003 campaign under Wallace. First and foremost was the University's agreement with the Philadelphia Eagles for Temple to play its home games at Lincoln Financial Field. It marked the first time since 1991 the Owls played all their home games at the same site. Temple's first five games at the venue drew an average 24,147 fans, a 21 percent increase from the prior season's average.

After battling through a school-record three overtime defeats in the early season, the Owls concluded the year with three, hard-fought losses to nationally-ranked opponents. Highlighting the final trio of games was the performance of sophomore quarterback Walter Washington, who averaged 315 yards of total offense and was responsible for eight touchdowns.

Along the way, Washington tied the school record for rushing scores with four at West Virginia and also set the Big East mark for total plays with 69 against the Mountaineers. He also became the first Temple signal caller to rush for over 100 yards in a game, eclipsing the mark versus Virginia Tech and at WVU.

Among the postseason honors to come to North Broad Street was a Second Team All-America citation for sophomore linebacker Rian Wallace from CollegeFootballNews.com. The Pottstown, Pa., native had the sixth-best single-season tackle output in Temple history, posting 148 tackles (97 solo) while also registering 19.5 TFLs.

Wallace was also a Second Team All-Big East honoree and was joined by senior wide receiver Zamir Cobb, who was a first team selection. Cobb, the Owls' all-time reception leader with 165 career catches, set the school's single-season reception mark with 74 catches for 866 yards and five TDs in 2003.

Temple concluded its 2004 campaign with a 2-9 mark, including a 1-5 league record in its final season as a member of the Big East Conference. Final NCAA rankings rated the Owls' schedule the 16th toughest in major football (60-43, .583). Six of 11 opponents were nationally-ranked at some point during the season and 10 were at least in the "receiving votes" category. Eight opponents concluded their 2004 campaigns by playing in bowl games.

Despite a multitude of adversity, Temple gave its fans reason to cheer. Many of those cheers were in response to performances turned-in by QB Walter Washington. The junior was the top scorer among Division I-A QBs with an 8.36 scoring average and led the nation in rushing TDs by a signal-caller during the regular season with 15, setting the Big East record for a QB and tying the Temple mark for total scores in a season.

Washington led the Big East with a 281.5 total yards-per-game average (3,096 total), to become Temple's first 3,000-yard player. He set a Big East and Temple record for yards rushing by a QB in a season with 889 net yards (1,104 total) and was responsible for the Owls' final 16 TDs, while accounting for 25 of 29 (86%) overall. Washington led the Big East and ranked 11th nationally in total offense (281.5), 22nd in point responsibility (13.82) and 21st in scoring. He set the Big East and Temple record for total plays with 554.

Washington, the Big East 2004 Player of the Year by CollegeFootballNews.com, was named to the All-Big East Second Team in a vote by the league's head coaches. He was joined on the all-conference squad by fellow juniors Rian "Goo" Wallace and Mike Mendenhall, who earned first and second team honors, respectively. After the season, Washington and Wallace both decided to forgo their senior seasons and enter the 2005 NFL Draft.

A Difficult Independence

Temple faced the 11th most difficult schedule in Division I-A in 2005, according to the NCAA statistical rankings, and was winless for the first time since 1959 (0-9) with a 0-11 record. It marked the final season at the helm for head coach Bobby Wallace, who concluded his eight-year Temple tenure with a 19-71 overall mark. The Owls played as a I-A independent.

(BA) - Bank of America Stadium, Charlotte, NC

Prior to the start of the season, the Owls' schedule was recognized for its degree of difficulty on a national scale in the pages of Sports Illustrated. A four-page spread penned by Franz Lidz deemed the docket as "arguably the most brutal in the country." Unfortunately for the Cherry & White faithful, the proclamation held true. The combined record of Temple's 11 opponents was 83-46 and seven played in postseason bowls, with six earning victories. Ten opponents concluded their regular season bowl eligible. The only Temple foe to post a losing record was ACC member Maryland at 5-6.

The Golden Years
Temple named Al Golden the 24th head coach in the history of the program on December 6, 2005. A Colts Neck, N.J., native and Penn State gridiron alumnus, Golden arrived on North Broad Street after having spent the previous five seasons as defensive coordinator at Virginia. At age 37, he entered his first season on the Cherry & White sideline as the fourth-youngest head coach in Division I-A football.

The 2006 season was difficult but beneficial. The team played the most true freshmen in the nation, with 22 taking the field. In total, 39 players saw their first major college football action, including 27 freshmen overall. These rookies did so against an ambitious schedule that ranked as the third toughest in the nation, with eight foes earning bowl invitations.

The first win of the Golden Era happened on Saturday, October 28 against Bowling Green at Lincoln Financial Field. The 28-14 victory earned Temple runner-up for Tostitos Fiesta Bowl National Team of the Week honors behind Oregon State. The Owls snapped a 20-game game losing streak with a gutsy performance highlighted by a multitude of big plays.

The Mid-American Conference
In his second season in 2007, Golden once again played the nation's most freshmen while guiding the Owls to four wins on the season, all in conference play, during their inaugural season of Mid-American Conference play. Temple won four games, the most wins since the 2002 season and equal to the wins from the prior four seasons combined. The four league wins were the most for Temple in 40 years. The Owls finished the 2007 campaign at 4-8 overall and 4-4 in MAC play.

Led by All-MAC honorees Andre Neblett and Dominique Harris, the Temple defense ranked atop the MAC in five statistical categories, including total defense, and finished ranked No. 1 nationally in red zone defense.

In 2008, Golden led the Owls to their most wins in nearly two decades, finishing at 5-7 overall and 4-4 in the MAC to tie for second in the East Division. Temple out-scored its opponents for the season for the first time since 1990 and was so close to eight wins, falling in three games on the very last play.

The Owls led the nation in kickoff returns as a team, and senior All-MAC KOR Travis Shelton was the national leader individually.

Under the direction of fourth-year head coach Al Golden, Temple recorded one of the best seasons in school history in 2009. The Owls finished 9-4 overall while tying for first place in the Mid-American Conference East Division at 7-1. TU advanced to the 2009 EagleBank Bowl against UCLA.

TU made school history with nine consecutive wins in a single season. Recording its first winning season since 1990 and becoming bowl eligible for the first time since 1990, Temple made its third bowl appearance in school history and first in 30 years.

The 2009 squad, featuring Golden's first recruiting class as seniors, set the school record for rushing touchdowns in a season with 29, surpassing 26 rushing TDs by the 1973 and 1979 teams. In all, Temple re-wrote 18 school season records and 11 game records in 2009.

Rookie RB Bernard Pierce earned several All-America honors during his freshman campaign, including CollegeFootballNews.com Honorable Mention All-American and College FootballNews.com Freshman All-American.

The Owls swept the Mid-American Conference honors as well. Pierce was named the Freshman of the Year, sophomore DE Adrian Robinson was named the Defensive Player of the Year, and head coach Al Golden was named the Coach of the Year. A school record 15 Temple football players were named All-MAC, including a school record eight first-team honorees.

In his fifth and final season with the Owls, Al Golden guided Temple to an 8-4 overall record and 5-3 in the MAC in 2010. Recording its first back-to-back winning seasons since 1978-79, Temple became bowl eligible for the second consecutive year for the first time in program history. However, despite a winning record, the Owls did not receive an at-large bowl invitation.

The Owls' 10-game home win streak at Lincoln Financial Field was the longest since the stadium opened in 2003 and tied the longest home win streak in school history of 10 games from the 1972-74 seasons at Temple and Veterans Stadiums.

For the second consecutive year, a school record eight Temple Owls earned first-team All-Mid-American Conference honors.

Following the season, Golden was named the head coach at the University of Miami.

The Addazio Era

On December 23, 2010, Steve Addazio was named Temple University's 25th head football coach.

In his first season in 2011, Addazio guided the Owls to an 9-4 overall record and a second-place finish in the Mid-American Conference East Division en route to their second bowl appearance in three years. Temple defeated Wyoming, 37-15, in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl.

The all-time winningest first-year coach in school history, Addazio mentored 10 All-MAC selections, including first-team honorees OL Pat Boyle, RB Bernard Pierce, DE Adrian Robinson, and TE Evan Rodriguez. The Owls' defense dominated the MAC, leading all teams in five categories while ranking No. 3 nationally in scoring defense.

Addazio's offense set the school records for rushing yards and rushing touchdowns in a season as well behind the explosive efforts of All-MAC honorees Pierce and Matt Brown. Pierce became Temple's all-time leader in rushing touchdowns (53), total touchdowns (54), and points scored (324).

Off the field, the Temple football players were recognized as the 2011 Most Valuable Players by the Philadelphia Affiliate of Susan G. Komen for the Cure for their community service efforts.

A Return to the Big East

On March 7, 2012, the Big East Conference announced that Temple would begin play in the league beginning with the 2012 football season.

In his second season in 2012, Addazio led Temple to a 4-7 overall record and 2-5 (tie for 6th) record in Big East play. The Owls returned to the Big East Conference after a seven -year absence and won back-to-back league games for a 2-0 start in Big East play, both for the first time in school history. True freshman LB Tyler Matakevich was named to the 2012 Football Writers Association of America Freshman All-America Team.

Six Temple Owls earned 2012 All-Big East honors, including senior Matt Brown who was named the Special Teams Player of the Year, and true freshman LB Tyler Matakevich who took home Rookie of the Year honors. Earning first team All-Conference honors were senior RB Montel Harris, Brown at return specialist, and senior Brandon McManus at punter. Second-team accolades went to senior OL Martin Wallace, McManus at placekicker, senior DL John Youboty, and Matakevich. A total of 31 Temple Owls were named to the 2012 Big East All-Academic Team.

The Owls made history in their final non-conference game. Senior RB Montel Harris had a career day, rushing for 351 yards and seven touchdowns — both Big East and school records — to lead the Owls to a 63-32 win at Army. The 63 points scored tied the Temple NCAA Division I-A record set back in 1973 in a win over Holy Cross. The Owls also established a new team record for rushing yards with 534, breaking the old mark set in 1977 against Drake (477 yards), just two yards shy of the Big East mark. The nine rushing touchdowns were a new Big East and school record.

Harris was not the only record-breaking Owl as senior PK Brandon McManus surpassed Bernard Pierce as the Owls' all-time scoring leader.

Following the season, Addazio was named the head coach at Boston College.

New Coach, New Conference, New Expectations

On December 17, 2012, Matt Rhule was named Temple University's 26th head football coach. No stranger to Temple after six seasons as an assistant under Golden and Addazio, Rhule returned to take the reins after eight months in the NFL coaching ranks.

In March 2013, the Big East formally announced a separation with its basketball schools. On September 6, 2013, when Temple hosted the University of Houston, the football schools began play under a new name, the American Athletic Conference.

The Rhule Era got off to a slow start getting out of the gates with a 0-6 record and finishing 2013 at 2-10. However, true freshman Phillip Walker took over at quarterback on October 11 at Cincinnati which started a streak of 47 straight starts for the Elizabeth, N.J. native who would go on to re-write the Temple record books.

Temple opened the 2014 season with a road win at Vanderbilt for its first win against an SEC opponent since 1938. Along the way Temple posted its largest margin of victory in nearly half a century beating Delaware State 59-0, but the season was highlighted by a 20-10 win against #21 ECU, the first Temple win over a ranked team in 16 seasons. A 6-6 overall record in 2014 left the Owls bowl eligible but out of the postseason.

The 2015 season was a record-setting year for Temple with many memorable moments along the way. Beginning with a 27-10 win over Penn State on opening day in front of a sellout crowd of 69,176 at Lincoln Financial Field. Three straight road victories (for the first time in 45 years) lifted the Owls to a 7-0 start and earned Temple a spot in the Top 25. That set the stage for one of the best moments in school history, an ABC nationally televised, primetime game against #9 Notre Dame that brought along ESPN's College Gameday to Philadelphia's Independence Mall. A nail-biting 24-20 loss to the Irish could not diminish that landmark moment. The Owls finished the regular season at 10-2, tying the 1979 team for the most wins in a season, and a berth in the American Athletic Conference's first-ever Championship Game. Temple fell at Houston, 24-13, and also lost to Toledo in the Marmot Boca Raton Bowl. While many Owls earned all-conference recognition, senior linebacker Tyler Matakevich, who finished with a school record 493 tackles including four seasons with 100+ stops, was named the nation's best defensive player earning both the Chuck Bednarik Award and Bronko Nagurski Trophy. Matakevich, defensive lineman Matt Ioannidis, and defensive back Tavon Young all were drafted into the NFL.

While 2016 ended with a similar 10-4 record, the season was much different from the 2015 version. Following a 3-3 start, the Owls turned a 7-0 record down the stretch, including back-to-back road game shutouts for the first time since 1925, into another Top 25 ranking and a spot in The American Championship Game. This time the results were different as Temple beat Navy in Annapolis, 34-10, for its first conference title since 1967 and its first-ever championship game victory. Quarterback Phillip Walker capped his record-setting career at Temple with the game's Most Outstanding Player Award. He became the first Temple quarterback to lead the Owls to multiple bowl games as Temple played in back-to-back bowl games for the first time ever. During the season, Haason Reddick was among the nation's best defenders with 10.5 sacks and 22.5 tackles for loss. While he was under the radar most of the season, Reddick was rewarded by becoming the #13 overall selection in the NFL Draft going to the Arizona Cardinals. He became just the fourth Temple player selected in the NFL's first round. Offensive lineman Dion Dawkins (Buffalo) and defensive back Nate Hairston (Indianapolis) joined Reddick among the drafted but seven other 2016 seniors signed free agent contracts. The team's success didn't come without consequences as Matt Rhule took a job at Baylor. Temple hired former Florida defensive coordinator Geoff Collins to continue the rise of the Top 25, championship program.

Mayhem is Coming

Geoff Collins came to Philadelphia with the moniker "Minister of Mayhem" and showed Temple fans exactly why he earned that nickname. Never bashful, the Georgia native, who sharpened his coaching skills with nearly a decade as a defensive coordinator in the SEC, turned up the volume - literally and figuratively - of Temple's football program. With an added emphasis on social media graphics and videos, Temple's recruiting reach extended to new areas and resulted in the school's highest ranked and most diverse recruiting classes ever. Collins' first season on the sidelines resulted in a 7-6 record insuring that the 2017 senior class would become the winningest class in school history with a four-year total of 33 wins. After developing its offensive identity, the Owls won four of their final five games including a 28-3 manhandling of FIU in the Bad Boy Mowers Gasparilla Bowl.

Collins' 2018 squad was led by the winningest senior class in school history finishing their careers with 35 wins and four straight bowl appearances - the first Temple class to do that. That class produced three NFL Draft picks - CB Rock Ya-Sin, RB Ryquell Armstead and DT Michael Dogbe - and a handful of undrafted free agents. Armstead moved among the all-time leaders in rushing while fellow senior, Ventell Bryant rewrote the school's record books with 173 receptions for 2,444 yards. He also caught at least one pass in all 48 games he played as an Owl.

By season's end, however, Collins left for his hometown team, Georgia Tech, and Ed Foley was once again the interim head coach of a bowl team. When Foley led the Owls in the Independence Bowl, he became the first to coach multiple Temple teams in a bowl game.

Seasons of Change

Director of athletics, Pat Kraft, was quick to replace Collins with Miami's defensive coordinator Manny Diaz. However 17 days later when the Miami head coaching job became vacant, Diaz returned to Miami. Kraft then led another head coaching search, this time landing NIU's Rod Carey.

Carey led the Owls to an 8-5 ledger and extended the school record to five straight bowl appearances when Temple went to the 2019 Military Bowl. Just as he was looking to put his imprint on the program though, a global pandemic hit creating chaos to all things, including college athletics. "We battled COVID and quite frankly, COVID won," said Carey following a disappointing 1-6 campaign in 2020. The Owls had all of their non-conference games canceled and Temple was the last FBS team to play a game - starting the season on October 10. Although Carey did his best to create a safe and healthy environment for his team, the Owls were short 215 players due to opt-outs, injuries and COVID protocols through the first seven games and were forced to cancel the season finale completely.

Prior to the 2020 season, Kraft left for Boston College and University President Richard Englert announced his retirement leading to a year-long search for a new president and director of athletics.

At the end of the 2021 season, Carey was relieved of his duties as head coach.

Changing of the Guard

Coming out of the pandemic, Temple was under new leadership on and off the gridiron. Dr. Jason Wingard was named University president in July 2021. A former D1 student-athlete, fortifying the athletic department was a major concern for him. He hired Arthur Johnson as vice president-director of athletics in November 2021. Johnson then tapped Stan Drayton to become Temple next head football coach. The two had worked together at the University of Texas.

1935 SUGAR BOWL

NEW ORLEANS, La. — The Mid-Winter Sports Association of New Orleans was formed in 1934 to formulate plans for an annual New Year's Day football classic. On Dec. 2, 1934, the Association's executive board selected Tulane (9-1), unbeaten in the South, and unbeaten Temple (7-0-2), coached by Glenn "Pop" Warner, to play in the first game.

The game was a financial and artistic success; however, the final 20–14 result was a heartbreaker for Temple fans. The Owls built up a 14-point lead only to see Tulane score touchdowns in the second, third, and fourth quarters to win the game.

The inaugural Sugar Bowl turned into a contest between two All-Americans—Temple's Dave Smukler (who played all 60 minutes) and Tulane's Claude "Monk" Simons. After the Owls' Danny Testa scored the first touchdown in Sugar Bowl history with a seven-yard TD reception from Smukler. Smukler rushed for second score. With Smukler converting both extra points, the Owls were up 14–0.

On the next kickoff, Johnny McDaniel received the ball and lateraled to Simons, who scampered 85 yards for a touchdown. The Owls held a 14-7 edge at halftime.

Dick Hardy scored the tying touchdown in the third quarter on an 11-yard pass from Bucky Bryan.

With less than three minutes left, Hardy notched the game-winning score on a 43-yard reception in the end zone. Temple blocked the extra point attempt, but was unable to score on its final drive. The hometown team would go on to win the first Sugar Bowl.

Tulane Stadium served as home for the Sugar Bowl until 1975 when it moved to its present site— the Louisiana Superdome.

1979 GARDEN STATE BOWL

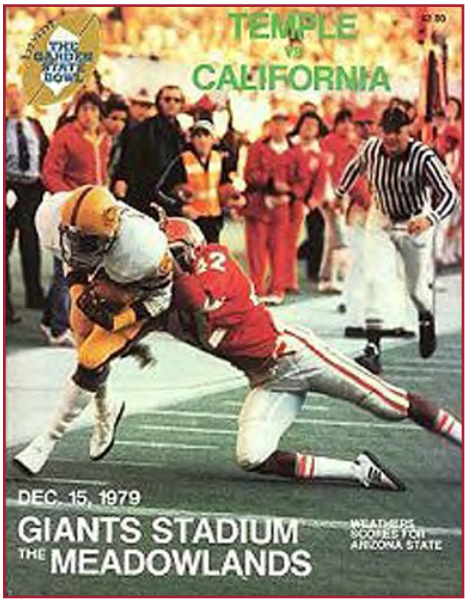
Giants Stadium, East Rutherford, N.J.

Temple (10-2)	21	0	0	7	28
California (6-6)	0	14	0	3	17

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — Temple ended its most successful season with its first-ever bowl victory. It was the Owls' 10th win of the year (a team record) and earned Wayne Hardin's team a spot in the AP and UPI Top 20. Temple was ranked 17th in both polls, the first time the Temple football team was nationally ranked in the final wire service polls.



Appearing in their first bowl game in 45 years, the Owls jumped out to a quick 21–0 lead in the first quarter, scoring on their first three possessions. Kevin Duckett scored the first two TDs on eight and four-yard runs. QB Brian Broomell connected on a seven-yard pass to Wiley Pitts for the third score. TU had 193 yards of total offense, including 150 yards rushing, in the opening stanza.

Temple then withstood a 17-point California rally before clinching the game with a 14-play, 78-yard scoring drive over 5:58 in the fourth quarter. Broomell tossed a five-yard touchdown pass to Gerald "Sweet Feet" Lucear for the win.

The telling statistic of the game was the rushing total, with Temple gaining 300 yards on the ground while holding the Golden Bears to only 23 yards.

The game's Most Valuable Player, Temple's Mark Bright, gained 112 of those yards on 19 carries, while backfield teammate Kevin Duckett ran for 92 yards and two touchdowns. Temple quarterback Brian Broomell joined in the act by tossing touchdown strikes to Wiley Pitts and Gerald Lucear.

Temple Notables

> Team captains— Brian Broomell, Mike Curcio, Casey Murphy

> Temple received a $225,000 payout from the gate receipts. Admission prices were $5 and $12.

> After four years (1978-81), the Garden State Bowl was discontinued. That led to the formation of the Kickoff Classic, held at Giants Stadium to begin the football season.

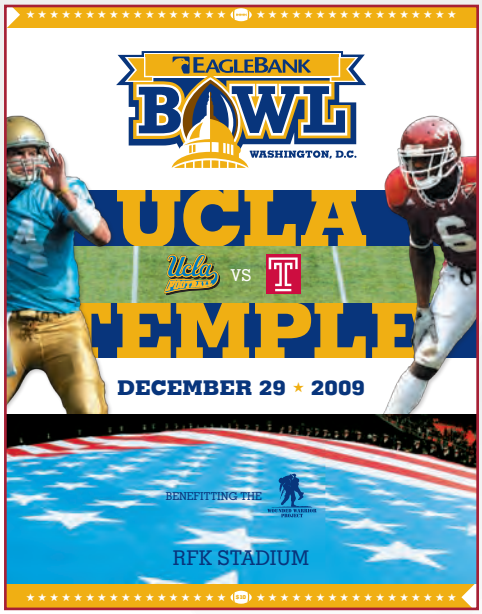
2009 EAGLE BANK BOWL

UCLA 30, Temple 21
December 29, 2009
RFK Stadium, Washington, D.C.

UCLA (7-6)	7	3	7	13	30
Temple (9-4)	7	14	0	0	21



WASHINGTON, D.C. – UCLA scored 23 unanswered points to pull off a come-from-behind win over Temple, 30-21, Tuesday evening in the EagleBank Bowl. The Bruins (7-6) spoiled the Owls' (9-4) first appearance in a bowl since 1979, but not a remarkable season that included a school-record nine-game win streak and a co-regular season Mid-American Conference East Division Championship.

A crowd of 23,072, with more than half donning Cherry and White, braved the frigid weather and blustery winds. The Owls had plenty to cheer about in the first half as the offense, directed by junior QB Vaughn Charlton and featuring the freshman backfield combination of Bernard Pierce and Matt Brown, found the end zone three times in building a 21-7 lead.

Making his first start since the Navy win on Oct. 31, Charlton (13-23, 159 yds., 1 TD) completed seven of his first eight passes for 95 yards, none bigger than the 26-yard TD to senior TE Steve Maneri that capped the Owls six-play, 80-yard opening drive.

UCLA answered two possessions later. After Terrence Austin returned a Jake Brownell punt 47 yards to the TU 46, freshman QB Kevin Prince (16-31, 222 yds, 2 TDs) found sophomore SE Nelson Rosario streaking down the left sidelines on the first play for a 46-yard score to tie the game, 7-7.

Temple, which controlled the ball on offense for 21:27 of the 30 minutes of the opening half, started to get its running on track with Pierce and Brown playing tag-team to combine for 94 yards, 61 coming in the second quarter.

Playing his first game since suffering a shoulder injury on the first play of the Kent State game, Pierce gained 86 total yards, 53 rushing on 12 carries and 33 on three receptions. He looked like his old self, especially on the Owls' second scoring drive. He barreled 13 yards up the middle for a first down to midfield and capped it with an 11-yard TD run around right end.

With Temple leading 14-7, junior DB Marquise Liverpool picked off Prince at midfield and returned the ball 21 yards before being pulled down by his facemask.

Starting at their own 15, Temple quickly marched it in with Pierce moving the ball five yards before giving way to Brown, who made three straight rushes, the last up the middle for a two-yard touchdown to give Temple a 21-7 lead with 1:25 remaining in the half.

Both teams exchanged three-and-out possessions that gave the Bruins the ball with 17 seconds left and at their own 47. Prince made two quick first down strikes, the second for 19 yards to Chane Moline, who went out-of-bounds at the Temple 22 with one second on the clock.

Junior PK Kai Forbath, the 2009 Groza Award winner given to the nation's top kicker, converted his 36th straight field goal from within 50 yards to cut the margin to 21-10 at intermission.

Senior Terrence Austin returned the opening kickoff 30 yards to the UCLA 47 and then he capped a six-play Bruin scoring drive with a 32-yard TD reception to cut the margin to 21-17.

When the Owls took the field for their first possession of the second half, Pierce was not with them. Instead he was standing on the sideline in a Temple parka, as he injured his left shoulder and would sit out the half.

Temple had its only real opportunity to score in the half on its opening possession. Two big plays, the first was by Charlton – a 21-yard first down scramble, and the second by Brown, who broke a 29-yarder to the UCLA 18. Three straight rushes by Brown made it fourth-and-one at the UCLA 9. The Owls elected to go for it, but with their big back sidelined, Brown was stopped short, ending the drive.

After that, the Bruins defense, which featured three Associated Press All-Americans, was able to put the clamps on the Owl attack. After gaining 242 yards of total offense and 12 first downs in the first half, Temple managed just four first downs and 40 yards of offense over the final 30 minutes.

The Owls only first down the remainder of the contest came on a roughing the kicker penalty that gave TU the ball at UCLA 40. Charlton then was picked off by first team All-America sophomore FS Rahim Moore, who recorded his nation's leading 10th interception on an acrobatic play defending junior WR Michael Campbell down the right sidelines.

Still, the Cherry and White defense, led by all-MAC performers Dominique Harris, Andre Neblett and Jaiquawn Jarrett, kept the Owls in the contest.

Temple held UCLA without a first down the remainder of the third quarter, and bent at the start of the fourth, before holding the Bruins to a 42-yard field goal by Forbath to make it 21-20 with 12:31 remaining to play.

The Owls defense stopped UCLA on its next possession as Alex Joseph and Muhammad Wilkerson corralled Prince in the backfield on a third and long at midfield. Temple took the ball at its own 18 and after Brown was stopped for a three-yard loss, Charlton was called for intentional grounding setting up a third and 20 from the TU 8. Charlton then was picked off at the line of scrimmage while looking for a short pass on the flat to Joe Jones by Akeem Ayers. Ayers, who would be named the MVP of the game, ran it in from two-yards out to give UCLA its first lead, 28-21.

Things went from bad to worse on Temple's next possession. James Nixon was tackled for a nine-yard loss on the first play. Brown, who finished with a game-high 83 yards on 20 carries, picked up three yards on the next play. Following an incomplete pass Brownell went back to punt, but the ball from center sailed over his head for a safety, making the score 30-21.

UCLA ran out the clock on the ensuing punt to end Temple's best season in three decades.

Pierce, who set the school record for touchdowns in a season (16) with his TD run tonight, and freshman Brandon McManus, who had three extra points, tied for the school single season scoring record with 96 points. They eclipsed the previous mark of 95 points set by PK Don Bitterlich in 1975.

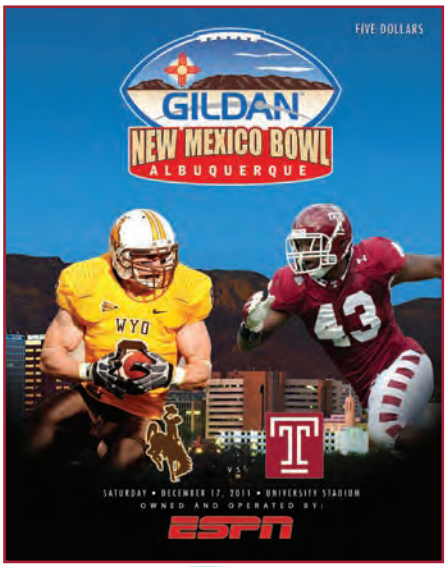
Temple (9-4)	7	21	3	6	37
Wyoming (8-5)	0	7	0	8	15



ALBUQUERQUE-- Temple used three one-yard touchdown runs to jump out to a 21-0 lead over Wyoming and never looked back in posting a 37-15 over the Cowboys to win the Gildan New Mexico Bowl on Dec. 17 in front of 25,762. It is the second bowl game victory in program history and first since Temple defeated California, 28-17, in the 1979 Garden State Bowl.

The Owls finished the season on a four-game win streak at 9-4 overall. The win also extended Temple's Senior Class record to 31 wins over the last four seasons.

'I'm awful proud of our seniors, some great accomplishments from them," head coach Steve Addazio said. "That is our first bowl win since 1979 and our ninth win of the year for our seniors, their 31st win. It meant an awful lot to our program and our university."

Sophomore QB Chris Coyer was named the game's Offensive MVP, and senior LB Tahir Whitehead earned Defensive MVP honors. Coyer, showing no ill effects from a shoulder injury suffered in the team's final regular-season game against Kent State, was flawless directing the Temple attack. He completed eight of 12 passes for 169 yards and one touchdown and also rushed for 71 yards on 12 carries.

Whitehead, a second team All-MAC performer, had a team-high 11 tackles, leading an Owl defensive unit that allowed just 267 yards to the Cowboys.

Junior RB Bernard Pierce set the tone early for the Owls. Pierce, who rushed for 100 yards and two touchdowns on the day, had eight carries for 31 yards in Temple's opening drive. His last carry was a one-yard touchdown. That capped a 13-play, 90-yard drive that lasted 6:19 seconds.

Wyoming then marched down the field on an 11-play drive of its own, but junior FS Vaughn Carraway batted away a pass by freshman QB Brett Smith on a third and 16 play. Freshman PK Daniel Sullivan was then wide right on his 49-yard field goal giving the Owls the ball back on their own 31.

Senior WR Joe Jones broke a 35-yard run off a reverse on the first play of the Owls' second drive. It was one of nine straight rushes against the Cowboys 115th ranked rush defense. The last run was another Pierce one-yard TD, to make it 14-0 with 14:28 to play in the half.

Senior CB Kee-ayre Griffin then intercepted a Smith pass and returned it 30 yards to the Wyoming 35. Pierce and Coyer each had 12 yard first down runs before junior RB Matt Brown finished the drive with a one-yard TD run, making it 21-0.

The Cowboys finally got on the scoreboard as Smith connected with freshman WR Josh Doctson on a 21-yard touchdown on a 4th-and-three play with 37 seconds left in the half.

The Owls answered in one play as Coyer found a wide-open senior WR Rod Streater down the right sideline for a 61-yard touchdown to give Temple a 28-7 lead at halftime and momentum heading into the lockerroom.

Temple controlled the game on both sides of the ball in the second half. The only scoring for the Owls came on the foot of junior PK Brandon McManus, who connected on three of three field goals. Wyoming finally found the end zone again with three seconds on the clock. when Smith hit Kody Sutton for 14-yard touchdown.

2015 BOCA RATON BOWL

Temple (10-4)	3	0	6	8	17
Toledo (11-2)	0	12	0	20	32

BOCA RATON, Fla. – #24 Temple couldn't complete a fourth-quarter comeback, as the Owls fell to Toledo, 32-17, in a steady downpour at the Marmot Boca Raton Bowl.

Temple's offense was sluggish in the first half, as the Owls were held to just 67 net yards. Toledo racked up 199 yards of offense, 168 in the air, using a safety, two field goals and a touchdown to lead 12-3 at the break.

The Owls were without the services of leading rusher Jahad Thomas, CB Tavon Young and LB Avery Williams, who exited the game at the half. They entered the game without Alex Wells as the first team all-conference safety suffered a hamstring injury earlier in the week.

After the teams traded punts to open up the game, Temple pinned Toledo to their own 1-yard line, giving the Owls good field position after forcing yet another Rockets' punt. Starting at their own 48-yard line, Temple used a 13-play 40-yard drive, ending with a 29-yard Austin Jones field goal to take a 3-0 lead with 1:13 left in the quarter.

Temple forced a three-and-out on Toledo's next possession, but the Rockets got on the board after a fumble from RB Jahad Thomas squirted out of the back of the end zone for a safety.

Leading 3-2, Toledo took the free kick out to their own 45, and took the lead after a five-play 55-yard drive. The score came on a 26-yard touchdown from Phillip Ely to Corey Jones, giving Toledo a 9-3 lead with 12:16 remaining in the second quarter.

Toledo tacked on a field goal as time expired to take a 12-3 lead into halftime. The Rockets forced a three-and-out from Temple, taking over at their own 42-yard line. Two big plays, including a 26-yard pass from Ely to Michael Roberts put Toledo in field goal range, where Jameson Vest made it a nine-point lead with a 38-yard field goal.

Temple opened the second half with an eight-play 67-yard drive, capped by an Austin Jones field goal, cutting the lead to 12-6. A 40-yard pass from QB Phillip Walker to WR Ventell Bryant and a 13-yard rush from Brandon Shippen, set up Jones for a 25-yard FG, his 22nd of the year, setting a new single-season school record. Jones passed Don Bitterlich's 1975 total.

The Owls forced a three-and-out on Toledo's next possession, and then set up yet another Jones field goal. Sean Chandler started the Owls at midfield with a 12-yard punt return and Walker added a 14-yard rush to set up Jones' score, which put Temple within a field goal (12-9) with 6:11 remaining in the third.

The teams traded punts to open the fourth quarter, with Alex Starzyk booting a career-best 71-yarder for Temple. However, the kick was out of the reach of the Temple defense, trickling into the end zone for a touchback. On the next play, Toledo's Ely found Cody Thompson for an 80-yard touchdown, making it 19-9 Rockets with 12:41 to play.

Temple got down to the Toledo 34 on its next possession, but Walker was intercepted by the Rockets' Juwan Haynes at the 26-yard line. From there, Toledo put together a 74-yard drive that took 5:31 off the clock, ending with a 1-yard TD run from Kareem Hunt. The Owls blocked the extra point, setting the score to 25-9 with 5:46 to play.

After the Toledo score, Temple recorded its first touchdown of the game, capping an 11-play, 68-yard drive with a two-yard run from TE Kip Patton. Shippen had two big catches on the drive, and was thrown to as Toledo was flagged for pass interference in the end zone, setting up the touchdown. Temple elected to go for two, and Walker scrambled out of pressure and somehow found Anderson in the end zone, making it an eight-point game, 25-17, with 2:50 on the clock.

Temple went for the onside kick, but the referees signaled that Toledo came up with the ball under a pile of players at midfield. Hunt then tacked on an insurance score for the Rockets, scoring from 41-yards out to put the game out of reach at 32-17 with just 2:29 on the clock.

The Owls had one more possession before the clock ran out, but the drive stalled at the Toledo 27-yard line, ending the game 32-17 in Toledo's favor.

2016 MILITARY BOWL

Wake Forest 34, #24 Temple 26
December 27, 2016
Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium Annapolis, Md.

Temple (10-4)	7	3	10	6	26
Wake Forest (7-6)	14	17	0	3	34

ANNAPOLIS — Facing off in the program's first ever back-to-back post-season appearance, No. 24 Temple came up short, 34-26, against ACC opponent Wake Forest in the Military Bowl Tuesday afternoon at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium.

Following the loss, the Owls fell to 10-4 (7-1 American) on the season, failing to reach the record 11th win Temple has been chasing these past two seasons. Despite falling behind 31-7 in the first half, Temple came surging back in the second, scoring two touchdowns and three field goals before coming up short on the final drive.

Right out of the gate, Temple showed its resolve on both sides of the ball, initially forcing an interception on the third play from scrimmage to set up the offense in ideal field position. Senior QB Phillip Walker and Co. took advantage one snap later, dropping in a 48-yard dime to junior WR Adonis Jennings, who carried his defender into the end zone.

Unfortunately, the Wake Forest offense woke up two possessions later, scoring on each of their next five drives up to the end of the first half. First, Demon Deacon QB John Wolford found his tight end on a 41-yard pass up the centerline to even the score at seven apiece. Next, after an Owls' three-and-out, Wake Forest drove 54 yards to another end zone appearance, this time a 20-yard pass from Wolford.

A muffed punt by Temple DB Sean Chandler set up the Demon Deacons inside the Owls' 10-yard line, leading to an 8-yard rush for yet-another touchdown. During the second quarter, the Wake Forest onslaught continued, as Wolford led his unit to, first, a field goal before wrapping up the half with a three-yard touchdown rush.

Temple responded in its final possession of the first half, knocking in a 45-yard field goal by freshman Aaron Boumerhi after an 11-play, 54-yard drive.

Similar to how the game began, the Owls' offense saw a spark from Jennings as the second half kicked off, this time watching the junior weave his way through the Demon Deacon defense for a 58-yard score just three snaps in.

The defense held its ground on the ensuing possession, as sophomore DB Delvon Randall intercepted Wake Forest in the end zone to squash any Demon Deacon response. Behind the efforts of Walker and multiple downfield connections, including two perfectly placed darts to sophomore WR Ventell Bryant and junior WR Keith Kirkwood, the Owls set up Boumerhi for his second field goal attempt.

On the following two possessions, after two punts from Wake Forest, Temple looked to Boumerhi yet again, watching the freshman all-conference selection drill his third and fourth field goals of the day from 32 and 38 yards out, cutting the score to under one possession.

Wake Forest extended its lead back to eight points after a field goal of their own, ensuring the Owls would need both a touchdown and two-point conversion to force overtime. Unfortunately for Temple, the offense was unable to convert a first down as the Demon Deacons took over on downs and were able to kneel the ball to secure their victory.

2017 GASPARILLA BOWL

Temple 28, FIU 3
December 21, 2017
Tropicana Field, St. Petersburg, Fla.

Temple (7-6)	0	7	7	14	28
FIU (8-5)	0	0	3	0	3

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. - Battling a resilient FIU squad in a defensive slugfest, Temple managed to never surrender its early lead as the Owls fought their way to a 28-3 victory over the Panthers at the Bad Boy Mowers Gasparilla Bowl in St. Petersburg, Fla. The group effort from Temple's defense paved the way for late offensive success, as the former compiled a bowl-record seven sacks and season-high three turnovers in the win.

Keys to the Game

> Following both offenses suffering through rough starts, Temple QB Frank Nutile and company put together the game's initial scoring drive to open the second quarter. After driving 64 yards over six plays, the redshirt junior decided the conclude the possession himself, fighting his way four yards into the end zone for the 7-0 advantage.

> Neither offense would manage a score for nearly another full quarter until FIU compiled a 12-play, 62-yard drive that concluded with a 27-yard field goal, cutting Temple's lead to 7-3.

> The Owls' offense saw fit to immediately respond to the Panthers' threat on their ensuing possession, putting together a 75-yard drive that culminated with a one-yard rushing score from redshirt junior David Hood for the 14-3 edge. The touchdown would never had happened without elite efforts from Nutile and his receiving corps, as the redshirt junior signal-caller effortlessly helped claw Temple out of a first-and-30 situation behind a pair of pinpoint throws. The true setup, though, came from redshirt senior Adonis Jennings, who despite being tackled to the ground at the one-yard line, managed to reel in a 39-yard reception all while lying nearly prone on his back.

> The Temple offensive engine continued to purr as the Owls' joint attack, both through the air and on the ground, finally broke the Panthers' sturdy defense. Taking over on the Owls' own seven-yard line, Hood kicked off festivities with a 29-yard rush up the left sideline before Nutile found sophomore WR Isaiah Wright for a 45-yard TD toss, bolstering Temple to a 21-3 advantage.

> Following FIU's third turnover of the game - fumble recovery by redshirt junior Freddie Booth-Lloyd - the Owls' offense went to work with excellent field position. Unsurprisingly, Temple quickly took advantage as junior RB Ryquell Armstead powered his way five yards for the touchdown and the game's final score, lifting the Owls to the 28-3 victory.

> The victory serves as the program's first postseason win since the 2011 Gildan New Mexico Bowl where Temple topped Wyoming 37-15.

> Both sides of the ball saw first-time starters, as redshirt junior Rob Ritrovato got the nod at fullback while sophomore William Kwenkeu filled in at middle linebacker.

> Midway through the first quarter with the Owls' offense reeling from a tough turnover (backwards pass ruled a fumble), S Sean Chandler saw fit to grab his third interception of the year on a deep pass deflection. The senior registered the 10th pick of his distinguished career, vaulting him into a tie for seventh all-time in the Temple record books.

> Following Chandler's early interception during the opening period, FIU's turnover woes continued as LB Shaun Bradley picked off a low pass midway through the second quarter. The interception marks the first of Bradley's young career with the Owls.

> Kwenkeu, who received the first start of his career in place of Bradley, earned his keep at middle linebacker behind some consistent play. The true sophomore recorded the first two sacks of his career and assisted the defense with six tackles on the game.

> Following Nutile's solid performance under center, as he threw for 254 yards and one touchdown on 18-of-28 passing, the redshirt junior was awarded Most Valuable Player (MVP) honors.

> As for head coach Geoff Collins, the win serves as just the second time in Gasparilla Bowl history that a first-year head coach brought home a victory, joining then-Louisville head coach Charlie Strong who did the same in 2010.

> The Temple defense put together seven sacks for the game, good for second-best by the unit this season (9.0 in win over UMass) and a bowl-record.

TEMPLE SUFFERS SECOND HALF COLLAPSE

Temple (8-5)	13	14	0	0	27
Duke (8-5)	7	14	21	14	56

SHREVEPORT, La. - In front of 27,492 fans at Independence Stadium the Temple Owls fell to the Duke Blue Devils 56-27 in the 43rd Independence Bowl to finish the season 8-5.

Temple and Duke traded scores throughout the first 30 minutes with the 48 points making for the highest combined scoring first half in Temple bowl history. The Owls couldn't get much going in the second half and were unable to keep the Blue Devils out of the endzone, resulting in a lopsided victory for Duke.

How it Happened
>After starting the game on offense with a quick three-and-out, the Owls set up on defense. On the third play of the drive, Duke completed a 62-yard pass to get all the way to the Owls' three yardline. The Blue Devils eventually punched it in on a QB keeper to take the first lead of the game 7-0.

>Isaiah Wright took the ensuing kick-off 74-yards to set up the offense on the Duke 26 yardline. After converting a third down on a pass from QB Anthony Russo to WR Brodrick Yancy, Russo took the ball 15 yards on a read-option into the endzone to even the score 7-7.

>On the following drive, Duke looked to be stringing together a productive drive before SAF Delvon Randall picked off a dump pass and took it 52-yards for a touchdown. The extra point was missed and the Owls took a 13-7 lead after one quarter.

>On Duke's first drive of the second quarter, CB Linwood Crump nabbed an interception on an under thrown ball to give the Owls the ball back on their own 42 yardline.

>Russo and company put together an efficient 10-play, 58-yard drive capped off by a touchdown by FB Rob Ritrovato. His one yard punch-in made the score 20-7 Temple with 10:25 left to play in the half.

>The Blue Devils answered with a touchdown of their own on the next drive. Duke went 70-yards on seven plays and scored on a 34-yard touchdown pass to close the gap, 20-14. Temple started the next drive on its own 27 yardline. Russo hit WR Sean Ryan on three separate passes for 12, 5, and then 27 yards to get the Owls into the redzone. After an 11-yard and three-yard run by RB Jager Gardner, Russo connected with Yancy on a crossing route for an 8-yard touchdown to put Temple ahead 27-14.

>Duke answered once again with a 22-yard catch and throw for a touchdown to keep it a one score game, 27-21 with 1:11 left to play in the half. The half ended 27-21.

>Duke scored on its first three drives of the second half to regain and push the lead to 42-27. Temple couldn't get much going in the third quarter in order to counter the high-powered Blue Devils' offense.

>After putting together a drive to get to the four yardline before the end of the third quarter, the Blue Devils scored again at the start of the final quarter to make the score 49-27.

>Duke added one more touchdown in the fourth quarter to account for the final score, 56-27.

Notes
>The Owls scored the most points in program history this season.

>Wright had the longest kick return in Temple bowl history with a 74-yard return.

>Randall's 52-yard pick-six was the longest interception return in Temple bowl history, he also had seven tackles.

>Randall and DT Michael Dogbe now hold the record for most games played as an Owl with 54. Randall played in 54 consecutive games.

>North Carolina would counter the score with another touchdown of its own. Howell threw a 16-yard back shoulder ball into the end zone that was tipped by SAF Amir Tyler and hauled in by a North Carolina receiver for the score. The Tar Heels added another field goal before halftime and took a 20-6 lead into the half.

>North Carolina scored again on its next possession. A trick play from the two-yard line led to the score and a 41-6 lead. The Owls got on the board again with five minutes to play in the third. FACILITIES

FACILITIES

Lincoln Financial Field

Lincoln Financial Field, home to the National Football League's Philadelphia Eagles, is a prime destination for world-class entertainment, providing the highest quality sports and entertainment experiences for fans in a safe, clean and friendly environment. In addition to Temple Football's home games, Lincoln Financial Field hosts 10 Eagles games each year and continues to showcase high-profile sporting events and unique experiences year-round. Since opening in August 2003, Lincoln Financial Field has hosted nearly 20 sold-out concerts, has welcomed some of the world's most distinguished soccer clubs and also serves as the home to the historic Army-Navy game. Additionally, the stadium has hosted multiple NCAA Lacrosse Championships, as well as Monster Jam and many other marquee events.

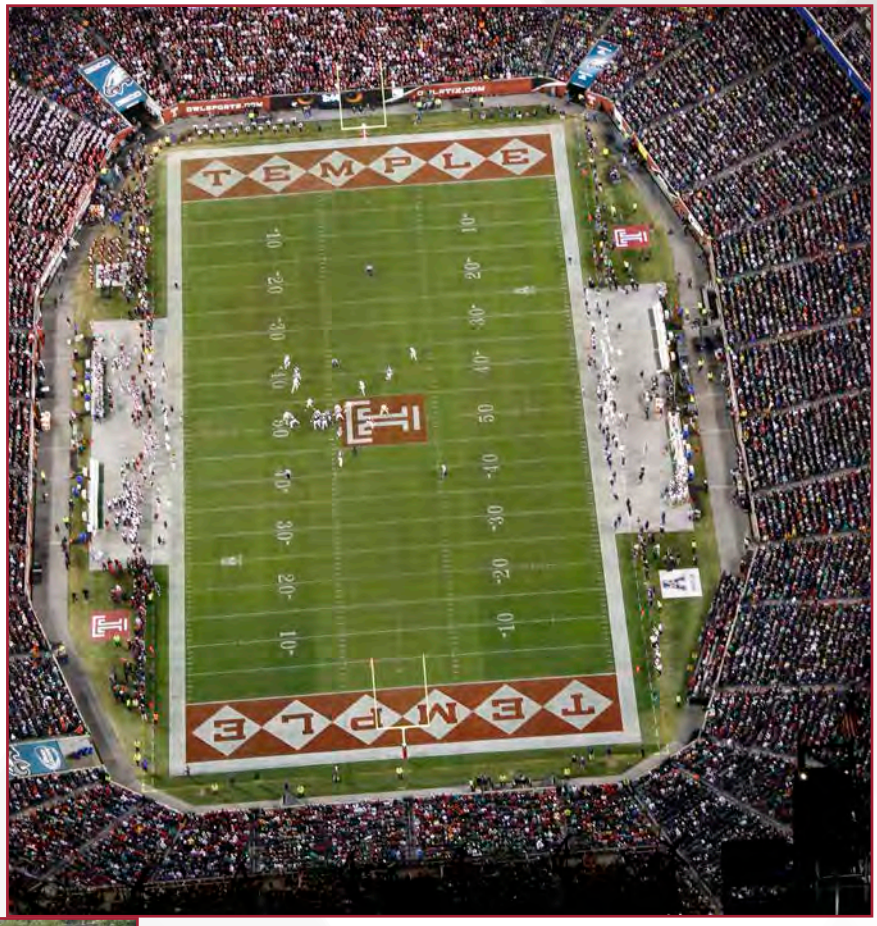
On August 13, 2003, the Philadelphia Eagles and Temple University announced a 15-year pact for the Owls to play their home football games at Lincoln Financial Field. An average of 24,137 fans per game witnessed the Cherry & White in its inaugural season at the venue, a 21 percent increase from the prior year's average.

In 2015, Temple set a record with an average of 44,158 spectators per game including a record home crowd of 69,280 on October 31 when the #21 Owls hosted #9 Notre Dame in Temple's first-ever ranked vs. ranked game.

Familiarly known as The Linc, it has a seating capacity of 69,596. The stadium is located in South Philadelphia on Pattison Avenue between 11th and 10th Streets, closer to the area's stretch of Interstate 95 than to Pattison.

In 2011, the stadium became powered with a combination of on-site wind, solar, and dual-fuel generated electricity, making it the world's first major sports stadium to convert to self-generated renewable energy. Approximately $25 million was invested to build the system, saving the Eagles an estimated $60 million in energy costs.

In August 2014, the Eagles completed a $125 million revitalization project to ensure that guests of Lincoln Financial Field are enjoying their in-stadium experience through enhanced convenience, comfort and connectivity.



Edberg-Olson Hall

Edberg-Olson Hall is the home of the Temple University football program. Officially dedicated on December 9, 2000, the facility was designed by AP3C Architects of Philadelphia. The building was engineered to not only support the football team's functional requirements, but to enhance the experience through innovative design concepts.

During the season, approximately 250 people will pass through its doors on a daily basis. In 2012, Edberg-Olson Hall underwent a $10 million upgrade with a 15,000-square-foot expansion. The original 23,600-square-foot building contains team and coaches locker rooms, a training room, equipment facilities, coach's offices, a players' lounge, individual position meeting rooms, and a theater-style team meeting room. Opened in July 2012, the upgrade has a strength and conditioning area that expanded from 2,500 square feet to 10,000 square feet. The expansion also features an enlarged sports medicine office with hydrotherapy, a full-service academic support area, and a 3,500-square-foot team function room. An observation balcony runs the length of the building. It is the perfect complement to a gridiron landscape outside featuring over 100,000 square feet of Sprinturf and 24,000 square feet of Astroturf. Eight, 85-foot poles providing 85 candles of white rendition light line the perimeter of the complex. Powder-coated cyclone fences provide privacy.

In 2014, Edberg Olson received a facelift. As part of a $1.5 million capital project that upgraded the locker rooms for all 19 Temple varsity sports, the football facility installed 125 new lockers and flatscreen televisions. In addition, updated graphics adorn the walls throughout the hallways and in the weight room.

The S.T.A.R. Complex

Temple University's new $28.5 million, 110,000 square foot Student Training and Recreation (STAR) Complex, a multipurpose academic, athletics and recreation facility, has been named for dining-services partner Aramark.

The complex provides the football team with an indoor facility to use throughout the winter and when weather prevents outdoor practice during the season.

Construction on the complex, which began in May 2016, was completed in August 2017. The facility offers labs for the College of Public Health, a 10,000 square foot weight and cardio area, facilities and offices for the Athletics and Campus Recreation departments, an indoor 70-yard synthetic turf field, and a 2-lane track outside the building.

The main lobby includes a climbing wall, lounge area and a Jamba Juice.
